

Sermon on the Mount

Matthew 5:43-48 - "Love Your Enemies"

Who Are My Enemies/Who Are My Neighbors? (vs. 43-44)

Living as Children of God...Being Peacemakers (vs. 45-47)

Be Perfect...We Need the Gospel (v. 48)

1. Loving your neighbor as yourself is found in Leviticus 19:18. This OT scripture is repeatedly quoted in the NT. Discuss how you can love your neighbor as yourself. How does that change your everyday response to people around you?
2. How do the words of Jesus in Matthew 5:9 (Blessed are the Peacemakers) connect to his words in today's teaching? What does it mean to be "children" of God?
3. When reading about loving our enemies, and all of the sermon on the mount, it creates a long uphill climb for us. How does the Sermon on the Mount, and particularly Matthew 5:48, drive us to the Gospel? Romans 3:21-22 gives us great hope in living out the Sermon on the Mount. What hope does the Gospel give you? How does it strengthen you to live out the words of Jesus?
