

Faith Baptist Newsletter – Feb 22, 2026

As we begin to see the season change and the days grow a little brighter, we're reminded that God is always at work bringing new life and fresh hope. With Easter approaching, this is a beautiful time to prepare our hearts for the celebration of Christ's resurrection and the victory we have in Him. Let's make the most of these weeks—not only by inviting others to join us—but by leaning into worship, spiritual growth, and the joy of fellowship. What a gift it is to belong to a church family that loves, prays, and walks through every season together. Let's enjoy one another and look forward with anticipation to all God will do this Easter season. - Pastor Greg Burdine

Missionary Note: Dave & Shawn Smith – Creative Access

I was making steady progress from my prostatectomy surgery on Jan 27th. Then a week ago on February 10th I woke up not feeling well with a fever and chills. Shawn called the surgeon's office and left a message. While waiting to hear back, my condition worsened and we decided I needed to go to the ER. When she went to warm up the car and returned, I was completely unresponsive. She called 911 and the ambulance arrived in minutes. While we were unaware at the time, I was in full sepsis shock and arrived at the ER with a fever over 105. Once again, we're overwhelmed by God's grace and thankful for the EMS and ER teams that saved my life. Blood and urine cultures revealed the same, rare UTI and blood infection, enabling the hospital staff to treat me with appropriate antibiotics quickly. I was in the hospital for 4 nights and returned home on Saturday. I'm able to receive ongoing antibiotic IV treatment from home to continue fighting the bacterial infection. Honestly, we feel like we've been hit by one massive wave after another knocking us down. Just when I felt like I was getting back on my feet, another wave almost took my life. When someone asked, "how are you feeling?" I replied, "I feel like I've been hit by a truck, twice!" We appreciate all of you who have been standing with us through each wave, praying for us, encouraging us and caring for us. Thank you for helping us to bear this burden.
