ANTIPHON

(text by George Herbert)

Praised be the God of love, here below, and here above:
 Who hath dealt his mercies so, to his friend, and to his foe;
 That both grace and glory tend us of old, and us in the end.
 The great Shepherd of the fold us did make, for us was sold.
 He our foes in pieces brake; Him we touch; and Him we take.
 Wherefore since that He is such, we adore, and we do crouch.
 Lord, thy praises should be more. We have none, and we no store.
 Praised be the God alone, Who hath made of two folds one.

John 15:12-15

<sup>12</sup> "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. <sup>14</sup> You are my friends if you do what I command you. <sup>15</sup> I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

Acts 2: 42-47

<sup>42</sup> They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. <sup>43</sup> Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. <sup>44</sup> All who believed were together and had all things in common; <sup>45</sup> they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. <sup>46</sup> Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, <sup>47</sup> praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.
