CALL TO WORSHIP

Deacon Mike McKnight

We gather here in anticipation, seeking an encounter with our Holy God.

Our God who comes among us when we least expect it.

We gather here with the weight of the world on our shoulders.

God invites us to wrestle with our questions and doubts, and troubles.

We gather here seeking transformation through the Holy One.

God's call richly blesses us, and calls us each by name.

Let's worship God together!

CALL TO CONFESSION

Jamie Bishop

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, provider of all we need, we are often content to rely on our own devices, our creativity, our cleverness. We congratulate ourselves for our accomplishments, yet we find that these achievements and acquisitions do not fill the deep hunger inside of us. Today we show up to this place longing for the transformation and healing you alone can provide. Forgive us, merciful God. Help us receive the blessings you offer, that we may be your bread for the world— blessed, broken for all.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Friends let us share this good news!

God's mercy is plentiful!

God's grace is abundant!

God's forgiveness is lifesaving!

God's steadfast love is forever!

Amen

2 CORINTHIANS 5:16-21

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. 17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. 20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

GENESIS 32:22-32

22 The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. 23 He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. 24 Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. 25 When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. 26 Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." 27 So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." 28 Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." 29 Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. 30 So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." 31 The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip. 32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the thigh muscle that is on the hip socket, because he struck Jacob on the hip socket at the thigh muscle.
