*CALL to WORSHIP Come, Holy Spirit, come. Come and move in and through us. Come, Holy Spirit, come. You whisper words of hope in a world of despair and turmoil. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Prepare us for your will be done.	Deacon Bryce Jones
CALL to CONFESSION PRAYER of CONFESSION Your Spirit moves over the waters, Gracious God, but we prefer to splash in the puddles of temptation. In your mercy, forgive us, God of abounding grace. May your Spirit sing in our hearts, so we may invite others to share in joy. May your Spirit be the voice which silences the shouts of fear and worry all around us. Amen.	Mackenzie Jager
ASSURANCE of PARDON In every breath we take, every word we speak, every person we welcome, there is the Spirit. In forgiveness, we are given the words to speak; the courage to reach out to others; the breath of life to share with those around us. Thanks be to God, we are forgiven! Amen.

Romans 8:14–17

¹⁴ For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. ¹⁵ For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” ¹⁶ it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷ and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Acts 2:1–21

¹ When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. ⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶ And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷ Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?” ⁸ And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.” ¹² All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” ¹³ But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” ¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵ Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. ¹⁶ No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷ ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. ¹⁸ Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹ And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. ²⁰ The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. ²¹ Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’

You Sent Your Holy Spirit

Mary Rose Jensen

You sent Your Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost
With tongues of fire and tongues that told the Gospel to the lost.
You strengthened Your disciples through the mighty wind that blew.
O God, we ask that You would give the power that they knew.

You sent Your Holy Spirit to the frightened, weak and worn.
And of this poor assembly soon a sturdy church was born.
You made a faithful people who endured wild beasts and swords.
O God, we ask that You would give such love for You, our Lord.

You sent Your Holy Spirit

As promised, a Helper.

As promised, a Counselor.

As promised, He brings to mind the words that Jesus said.

You sent Your Holy Spirit to equip Your church to tell
The news that Jesus rose again, defeating death and hell.
You scattered your believers to all corners of the earth.
O God, we ask that You would give us ways to teach your worth.
Amen.
