WELCOME & LIFE TOGETHER

CHORAL INTROIT

Come Before His Presence With Thanksgiving
Hal Hopson

CALL to WORSHIP

Let us worship God, who has done great things.

We rejoice in our God, who made a way through the desert of this world.

Let us worship God, who has caused streams of mercy to flow in the wasteland.

We are the people God has formed through Christ; we worship God, and we rejoice!

Let us worship God in spirit and in truth.

We praise God for the grace that has saved us. Alleluia! We rejoice!

CALL to CONFESSION

PRAYER of CONFESSION

Most merciful God,
whose Son, Jesus Christ, was tempted in every way,
yet was without sin,
we confess before you our own sinfulness.
We have hungered after that which does not satisfy;
we have compromised with evil;
we have doubted your power to protect us.
Forgive our lack of faith; have mercy on our weakness.

Restore in us such trust and love that we may walk in your ways and delight in your will. Amen.

ASSURANCE of PARDON

Those who love me, I will deliver, says the Lord;
I will protect those who know my name.
When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will be with them in trouble,
I will rescue them and honor them
and show them my salvation.
Receive the good news of the gospel:
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High
Pietro Cattaneo

Romans 10:8–13

⁸ But what does it say?

“The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart”

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); ⁹ because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. ¹¹ The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. ¹³ For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Luke 4:1–13

4 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, ² where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. ³ The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” ⁴ Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’”

⁵ Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. ⁶ And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. ⁷ If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” ⁸ Jesus answered him, “It is written,

‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’”

⁹ Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, ¹⁰ for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you,’
¹¹ and

‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’”

¹² Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ¹³ When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Oh, Jesus, my Savior, I know thou art mine;
For thee all the pleasures of earth I resign.
Of objects most pleasing, I love thee the best;
Without thee I’m wretched, but with thee I’m bless’d.

For thee all the pleasures of sense I’ll forego,
And wander a pilgrim despised below.
Thou art my rich treasure, my joy and my love,
No finer possess’d by the angels above.

Thy spirit first taught me to know I was blind,
Then taught me the way of salvation to find:
For when I was sinking into black despair,
My Jesus reliev’d me and bid me not fear.

There millions of ages my soul shall employ,
In praising my Jesus, my hope and my joy,
Where glorified spirits and angels around
Shall all be delighted to join the glad sound.
