The place where worldly value passes
the point of no return.

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Today we're talking about what gives our lives _____.

What God provides in order to help us see his definition of value functions like a _____.

1. The cross on which the Savior died.

Paul says that Jesus' cross acts this way for three worldly sources of value. What are they?

What does it replace these three sources of worldly value with?

What blessings came bursting forth from Jesus' cross?

2. The cross after which his church is shaped.

Christ's _____ is full of weakness, disgrace, and folly because Christ's church is full of _____ who are weak, disgraceful, and foolish.

How many weak, disgraceful, and foolish people does it take to prove that power, status, and wisdom don't have value in Christ's church?

What blessing comes from the presence of this weakness, disgrace, and folly?

If we have nothing to boast about in _____ the only thing that's left for us is to boast in the _____.

For me to remember:

The places in the universe where weakness, disgrace, and folly are densest are where the value of what God gives us is infinite.
