

WEEK 2

SMALL GROUP GUIDE for middle schoolers

UNBELIEVABLE

BIG IDEA

When you don't understand, you can still trust God's character.

BIBLE

John 4:43–54; Romans 5:1–5; Psalm 72:18–19

ABOUT THIS WEEK

Some things about faith can feel confusing and shatter what we believe, but that doesn't change who God is! This week, we'll see how a royal official begged Jesus to heal his son. Even though it might have been hard to imagine how Jesus could heal from miles away, his faith reminds us that when you don't understand, you can still trust God's character.

MEMORY VERSE

"This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us." — 1 John 5:14 (NIV)

DISCUSSION

- What's something that seems difficult for most people but comes naturally to you?
- How can you tell what someone's character is like?
- When the royal official asked Jesus for help, what kind of emotions do you think he was feeling?
- Read Psalm 72:18-19. How does this verse show you what God is capable of, and how does that give you hope?
- Who is someone you can encourage this week by pointing out how you see God working in their life?
- When life feels confusing or uncertain, what is one thing about God's character you can trust? What are a few things you can do to show that trust in your daily life?
