

Romans 3:1-8

Answering Jewish Objections

- I. Introduction: Paul anticipated the objections that Jewish people might have to his argument that they were going to be judged by God, and he answered them.

- II. Answering Jewish Objections (Rom 3:1-8).
  - A. About God's People (vv. 1-2).
    1. Paul proclaimed that the Jewish person's advantage is that God gave them His Word so they would uphold His righteous standards.

  - B. About God's Promises (vv. 3-4).
    1. Paul's point is that the unbelief of the Jews to trust in God's promises does not nullify His prophetic word or cancel His covenant with Israel.

  - C. About God's Justice (vv. 5-8).
    1. Paul anticipated another Jewish objection by affirming that God is righteous to judge Jews for their unbelief, even when their sin has served to bring about good.

- III. Conclusion: Paul states that all of the Jews' objections about God's justice would not pardon them from the reality that they are sinners under His judgement.
