

Priceless Lessons from Gen W: An Exposition of Numbers

“Our Swearing God”

Numbers 13–14

The Lord’s Day Morning

February 15, 2026

God is a swearing God. In Genesis 22:16, he swore an oath to Abraham to bless him with many descendants and a good land so that they would become a great nation that would bless all the nations of the earth (Gen. 12:1–7; 22:16). The rest of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments, is the story of God keeping that promise then, now, and forever.

From this morning’s text, we glean four important principles that are crucial for knowing, loving, obeying, and exalting our swearing God.

1. The right view is not always _____.
2. God gives us tasks beyond our ability so that we _____.
3. The goal of our obedience is to _____.
4. God will accomplish what he swears _____.
