GENESIS

an HP Sermon Series

"What's our story?"
"Who are we?"
"Who is God?"

Ancient, Eastern readers asked these questions, and Genesis begins answering them. This text still builds the foundation for us to understand our origins and the shocking lengths to which God goes to save humanity.

Join us at 10:30am each Sunday as we study together from the book of Genesis to find answers to these questions!

February 16-18, 2026

Jacob and Hannah Crosser welcomed Aurora Jean Crosser on January 12. "Rory's" big sisters are ready to teach her lots of new things!

Gaye Rotramel is the proud grandmother of Smitty Weichbrodt, born to Gaye's daughter and son-in-law on January 14. He weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces, and was 21 inches long.

The data is conclusive: tech can be a blessing and a curse. So what can we do to wisely help kids navigate our high-tech world? Here's what you can expect at our community event:

- You'll be encouraged. We want to express our appreciation and support for everyone caring for young people. If you would like someone to follow up with you or pray with you, we're available.
- Hear lightning-fast summaries of several of the most important books on this topic. We know you don't have time to read everything, so we're here to help. We'll also share a compiled list of helpful books, podcast episodes, and resources.
- Hear a few teachers share: "What I wish parents knew..."
- Hear a few parents share: "What I wish school knew..."
- Make connections with others who share your passion to help kids. These connections are essential for our communities to move forward.

Dinner, childcare and prize-drawings will be provided for all those who register by February 25. Dinner is smoked chicken sandwiches, chips, and snacks. Kids will have pizza for dinner. Doors open at 6:15pm. Please park in our main downstairs lot.

Please email Joseph at josephr@hptulsa.com with questions. Register at <https://hptulsa.com/tech>.

John Wilson has added book #3 for purchase on Amazon. It is titled, "Good Times with Bible Rhymes" and has some great poems that focus on stories from the Bible. John dedicated this book to Dave Dunson.
