VOLUME 35, ISSUE 3

DEAN MEADE
Discipleship Pastor

On Sunday evening, February 11th, Journey Groups will meet at 4:30pm instead of the usual 5:00pm. Then, at 5:30pm we will be holding the Super bowl Party. If weather cooperates, we will hold the event outside, under the covered area, called the HUB. If we have inclement weather, we will hold the event in the Student Center, second floor, of Building A.

This event is sure to be a time of fellowship and fun. There will be a chili cookoff competition with some pretty cool prizes. If you, or your neighbor, makes a great bowl of chili and/or are a great chili connoisseur—this event is for you. I will be sure Tums will be provided! If chili is not your thing bring your favorite tailgate food to share. We will provide the drinks and chili fixings (fritos, chips, cheese, etc.).

Why not make the ask? Invite a friend, it will be a fun and casual way to introduce them to Northside and hang out with followers of Jesus that enjoy football. Hey, even if you don't enjoy football, you can still come out and fellowship with others.

We realize that a majority of Northsiders and friends work Monday morning following the Super Bowl and that our kiddos have school bright and early. Because of that, across the years, we have found it beneficial to end our Super bowl parties at halftime. This gives you time to get home prior to the second half...should you be determined to not miss a play!

I hope that you will consider attending and inviting a friend. We will look forward to hanging out with you! May the best chili win!

It is a privilege to serve as your Discipleship Pastor,
