BAPTIST CHURCH

ROMANS 4:24

written for his sake alone,²⁴ but for ours also. It will be counted to us "who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord,²⁵ who was delivered up for our trespass and raised²⁶ for our justification.

Peace with God Through Faith

5 "For he who was justified by faith, "we" have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also "the" access "to" God" into this grace in which we stand, and "we" rejoice²⁷ in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,²⁸ and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,²⁹ and "hope" does not put us to shame because God's love³⁰ has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

⁶ For "while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly."³¹ For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—³² but God shows his love for us in that "while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."³³ Since, therefore, "we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God."³⁴ For if "while we were enemies" we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.³⁵ More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received³⁶ reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

¹⁹ Therefore, just as "sin came into the world through one man, and "death through sin, and "so death spread to all men,"
