THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good morning Northside family and friends! What a week! Camp was completely awesome. It has been a few years since I have experienced a camp like this, where

“When we surrender there is a cost. Do we even think about what it will cost us as we journey with Jesus in this life?”

God moved with so much power. We had 6 students accept Christ, several rededicate their lives, and one call to ministry. I was completely blown away with how God worked this week. On top of all that, our group grew closer together. A seven hour van ride will always help with that.

I also saw some other amazing things. One of our students walked around the cafeteria picking up people’s trash and throwing it away for them. We had a group of girls sitting at an outdoor table taking turns reading scripture out loud. It was so awesome to see our students love people and serve them.

Today we are going to be looking at the camp theme verse (Gal 2:20), then we will jump to Luke 14:25-33. We will be looking at what the cost is to totally surrender, because when we surrender, there is always a cost. Do we even think about what it will cost us as we journey with Jesus in this life? This morning, I pray that you will be willing to let go, be honest with yourself and God, and ask some hard questions.

One more thing...you all thought I forgot...Happy Father’s Day! I hope if you are a father that you have an awesome day, and I want to encourage you to stop and spend the day resting with your kids. We only get so long with our kids, so spend it wisely. Lead them and your family well.
