VOLUME 35, ISSUE 17

STEPHEN SUMMERS
Worship Pastor

Well, it is my turn in the rotation for the Northside newsletter article. I told Pastor Cody that I was struggling with what to write about. He suggested, "Hey, choir is starting back up. Write about that!". I told him that I thought I had written about that last year around this season and that I wanted to be original.

As I am typing this I'm remembering back to our One Day pastors' meeting that we had a few weeks back. We talked a lot about Northside's strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities. One specific thing we spent a good amount of time talking about was that of community. In a church as large as Northside, one can attend every Sunday and still feel disconnected from the majority of the body. Even as one of the pastors, I still feel like there are people I just don't know. If you see me at H-E-B, stop me and introduce yourself. There are so many times I see people that look familiar but I'm not sure from where.

Getting back to the idea of community in our church...as we looked at the year calendar, we tried to view each season as an opportunity for community. Northside kicked off our fall season of Sunday morning bible studies last week, and this Sunday, the Journey Group season begins. Darrell pointed out in his sermon a few weeks ago - there is only so deep we can go in our personal relationships with Christ, as well as experience connection with the body of Christ, with only Sunday church attendance. There are many opportunities to plug into smaller group bible studies and smaller Triad group involvement.

As for the calendar, we are planning more opportunities for our church members (and any visitors we bring along) to experience fellowship and unity with one another. We will continue with our Fall Festival on October 31, which is a great time to volunteer with fellow church members to show love to our community. November 24, we will have a church-wide Thanksgiving Banquet. Also, there will be some other Sunday night fellowship events following our Journey Group times.

There is a good descriptor of community in Acts 2:42-47:

"And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved."

I look forward to getting to know more of you as we all strive to do life with one another as those early followers of Christ did.

For His Sake,

Stephen

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

It's that time of the year to begin preparing for OCC! You can grab a list of appropriate items to include in boxes at the connect center. Instead of bringing separate items, we are asking those who participate to fill their boxes at home. Now is a great time to begin stocking up on items like paper, writing and coloring utensils, erasers, and other fun items! If you cannot fill a shoebox but would like to help, you can still donate to shipping costs.

KIDS' CHURCH VOLUNTEERS

We need two adults help in Kids' Church each week. There is no preparation necessary, just helping watch the kids. The goal is to have enough volunteers in a rotation so that each individual is needed only once per quarter. Check out the online sign-up at nbcvictoria.org/events.

WOMEN OF GRACE LUNCH & PAINT PARTY POSTPONED

The Women of Grace lunch and paint party originally scheduled for 9/6/24 has been postponed to 10/4. The cost of the bags has been covered, so there is no charge. If you did not originally sign up, there is still time to sign up for this free activity. Contact Amy Wakefield at 361-550-2039 if you would like to add your name to the list for next month.

PRAY FOR OUR PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

As we begin the process of searching for our two open pastor positions, please be in prayer for our personnel committee. They will be putting in a lot of hard work and hours into this process. These are the members on that committee: Carla Ragasdale, Mattea Sciba, Mike Rivet, Richard Rathliff, Hank Sheeran, and Joanne Olson.

LET US KNOW: If you or a loved one are in the hospital and need a visit, let us know. We can't know unless someone tells us.

SYMPATHY AND PRAYERS FOR: The family of Merle Sparks on her death and the family of Joy Hoad on her death. We join together as a family of faith and prayer as we celebrate Christ's gift of eternal life.
