ROMANS 4:24
written for his sake alone,<sup>24</sup> but for ours also. It will be counted to us "who believe in 'him' who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord,<sup>25</sup> who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised 'for our justification.'

Peace with God Through Faith

ROMANS 5:1<sup>1</sup>Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, <sup>2</sup>we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup>Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>4</sup>Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, <sup>5</sup>and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, <sup>6</sup>and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love <sup>7</sup>has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

ROMANS 5:6<sup>6</sup>For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.<sup>7</sup>For one who scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—<sup>8</sup>but God shows his love for us in that <sup>9</sup>while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup>Since, therefore, <sup>10</sup>we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from <sup>11</sup>the wrath of God.<sup>10</sup>For while we were enemies <sup>12</sup>we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.<sup>11</sup>More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received <sup>13</sup>reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

ROMANS 5:12<sup>12</sup>Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and <sup>13</sup>death through sin, and <sup>14</sup>so death spread to all men<sup>5</sup> because all sinned—<sup>15</sup>for sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but <sup>16</sup>sin

THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Today, we begin a systematic study of the book of Romans. The book of Romans is one of the most thorough examinations of our salvation that you will find. Paul systematically walks through the how, the why, and the what of our salvation. This is a book that you will find challenging at times, encouraging at times, and insightful at other times. I hope this study will be a blessing to you.

“I trust that God will reveal things to us and we make our way along.”

There are several things that I think will aide you as we walk through this book. First of all, I want to encourage you to read through the book of Romans several times during our study. As is the case with most books, the more time you spend in it, the more you will begin to connect the dots. So make a plan as to how you will approach it, but set a goal to read it through at least three times during our study of this book.

Second, take good notes. I know we provide the sermon outline for you in the bulletin, but this may be a time you want to grab an inexpensive journal somewhere and make your notes there. This will keep your notes all in one place and will help you as we review what we have learned.

Third, I would encourage you to do some study on your own. We live in a day and age of information overload. With the internet, podcasts, and streaming capabilities, – there really is no reason why we cannot do some study on our own.

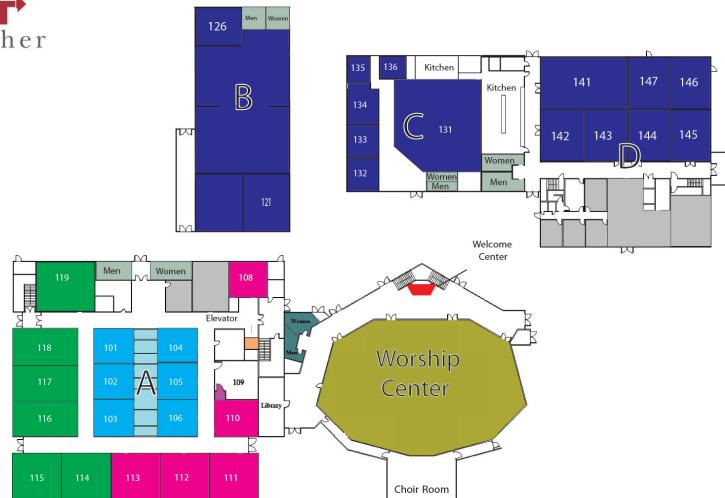

I look forward to learning with you and growing in the Lord together as we journey through the book of Romans. I trust that God will reveal things to us as we make our way along. I am sure there will be times of wrestling, times of praying, and times of questioning. But, I pray God would make Himself known through it all.

Honored to be your pastor,
