THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

One of the areas that God has really blessed Northside in is our ability to send men out to preach the gospel. Many of you know that three of our men – David Segura, Marlon Vick, and TJ Girt – have gone out to pastor other churches. However, we also have men that supply for other churches regularly. God has truly blessed us by giving us a small part in helping other churches in our area.

Today, we have one of those men standing in for us at Northside. Stuart Sherman has been a man that has helped our church in many areas. He has been involved greatly with our music ministry as well as helping us with much of our safety and security – given that his day job is serving at UHV in these capacities. If you have paid attention, you probably have noticed that he has been gone for some months. This is not because he has left us but has been supply preaching for a number of churches.

I am excited for Stuart to have this opportunity, but for you as well. I look forward to hearing about the job he has done and how it has blessed you. Kimberly and I will be back with you next Sunday. She and I have taken the weekend to go to a Zach Williams concert in Belton and simply to have a little time away. Trust me when I tell you, we miss you. We will see you next week.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
