FALL FESTIVAL

Fall Festival is coming up quickly on October 31. We need your help to intentionally engage our community by volunteering to serve at a booth. Sign up online at nbcvictoria.org/events to see which booths are still available. Bring your pre-wrapped candy to a Connect Center or the church office by October 27. Invite your friends, family, and neighbors today!

KIDS' CHURCH VOLUNTEERS

We need two adult helpers each week for Kids' Church. There is no preparation necessary, just helping watch the kids. The goal is to have enough volunteers in a rotation so that each individual is only needed once per quarter. Check out the online sign-up at nbcvictoria.org/events.

CHILD AND BABY DEDICATION

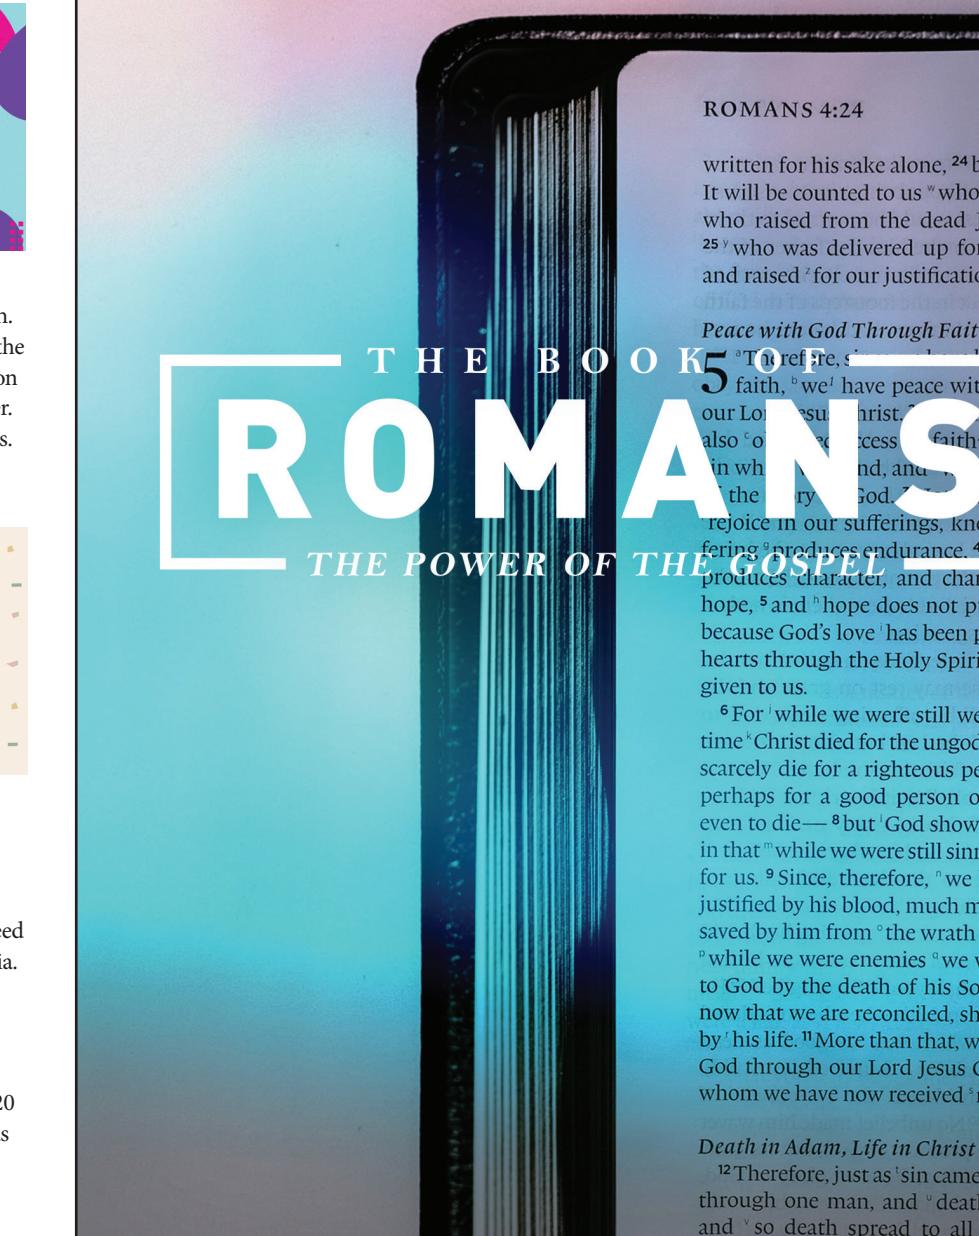

There will be a Baby and Child Dedication on November 10 during the morning worship service. If you would like to participate, please register on the Events Page of our website by November 6. We will need a picture of your child, emailed to hannah@nbcvictoria.org.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEAL

Let us help take care of dinner on Wednesday nights! The suggested donation is $5 per plate with a cap at $20 per family. Join us in the fellowship hall from 5-6pm as we fellowship together.

ROMANS 4:24

written for his sake alone,²⁴ but for ours also. It will be counted to us "who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord,²⁵ who was delivered up for our trespass and raised² for our justification.

Peace with God Through Faith

⁵To refer, since we have been justified by faith,⁶ we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access⁷ to faith⁸ into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice⁹ in hope of the glory of God. ¹⁰Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering¹¹ produces endurance.¹² And endurance produces character, and character produces hope,¹³ and hope does not put us to shame because God's love¹⁴ has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time¹⁵ Christ died for the ungodly.⁷ For one who scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—⁸but God shows his love for us in that⁹while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.¹⁰ Since, therefore,¹¹ we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from¹² the wrath of God.¹³ For while we were enemies¹⁴ we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.¹⁵ More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received¹⁶ reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

¹²Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men¹³ because

THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Every decision we make in life is an exchange for something else. Every "yes" is a "no" to something else. Vice versa, every "no" is a "yes" to something else. The challenge for you and me is that we must evaluate such decisions and choose what is best. If the decision is between rice or steamed vegetables, it is of little consequence. However, there are decisions in life that are of great consequence.

In our text today, we will see the phrase, "They exchanged," a number of times. Unfortunately, for the Romans, these were terrible exchanges. We are told that they, "Exchanged the glory of the immortal God..." Additionally, "they exchanged the truth about God for a lie." And Finally, "they exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature." All of these exchanges left them in a difficult spot where we are told that, "God gave them up to a debased mind."

As we consider these things, we must make a choice as to how we will read this text. Will we read it as a historical document of little consequence to us, or will we read it as a stark warning for us in our walk with God? The reality is, though 2000 years have rolled past, humanity has not changed in the slightest. We still, in our natural mind, prefer the lusts of the flesh over the righteousness of God.

I want to encourage you this morning, to take a close look at your life. Maybe some of the exchanges that we have made are not as stark as those Romans had made, but they exist, nonetheless. Where have we said no to God and yes to our own desires? Where have we settled for what we want or what is easier over God's will? It is imperative that we correct these areas of disobedience.

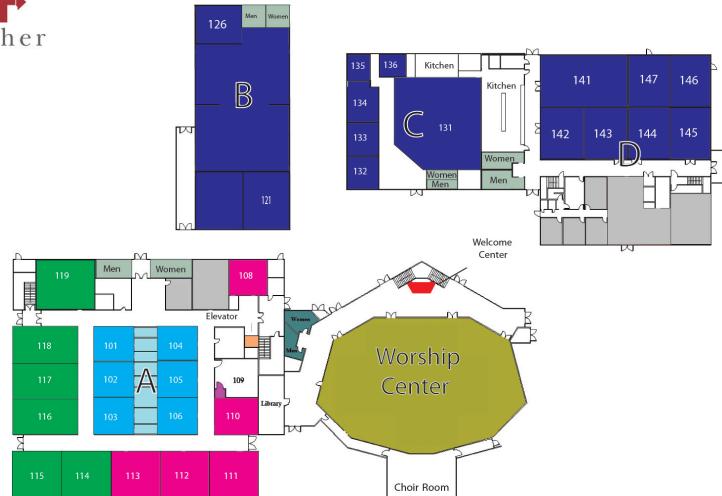

Walking with God has never been easy. The flesh, the devil, and the culture around us will push back the whole way. However, we know that the battle is well worth it. Let us pursue God and avoid irrational exchanges.

Honored to be your Pastor,
