VOLUME 35, ISSUE 23

STEPHEN SUMMERS
Worship Pastor

As we enter the month of December, I've been thinking a lot about the many traditions many of us follow this time of year. Most Christmas time traditions celebrate the common themes of giving, joy and togetherness. Many of us decorate trees and hang lights and wreaths. Radios and playlists include classic Christmas carols as well as newer songs celebrating the season. There are lights and decorations everywhere you look, and we can't forget to mention all of the holiday baking and treats that start appearing. Nativity scenes, be it in yards or on display in a window, have always been one of my favorites. There are so many more out there. Have you heard of the Christmas pickle, Boxing Day, or had the pleasure of tasting a bûche de Noël?

One tradition that has been around for a long time is Advent. Though it has not always been celebrated in the Baptist church, it has, in recent years, been added to many of our church services.

The word "Advent" comes from the Latin "adventus," meaning "coming" or "arrival." The season of Advent was initially observed in the Western Church (Roman Catholic, Anglican, and some Protestant traditions) during the 4th or 5th century. It began as a period of fasting and penance in preparation for the celebration of Christ's birth. Over time, Advent evolved into a season not just of penance but also of joyful anticipation for Christ's coming. The four weeks of Advent now symbolize the time of waiting, as Christians reflect both on the birth of Jesus (His first coming) and His anticipated return (the Second Coming).

As we move toward Christmas, it's easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of shopping, decorating, and planning for family gatherings. While these traditions are an important part of the season, let us not forget the deeper meaning of Christmas. At its heart, Christmas is the story of God's love manifested in the birth of Jesus Christ, a humble child born in a manger to bring salvation and hope to us all.

We invite you to join us for our special Christmas services this year, where we will come together as a community to celebrate the birth of our Savior. In addition to our normal Sunday schedule, let me point out a few other ways you can be a part.

December 15th @ 6pm - "Christ Has Come" - Northside's worship ministry program with a hot chocolate and cookie fellowship to follow.

December 22 @ 9am - Church-wide Christmas Breakfast.

December 24 @ 5pm - Christmas Eve service.

We hope you can be a part of these meaningful times of worship, prayer, and fellowship as we celebrate the greatest gift of all, Jesus Christ.

For His sake,

Stephen
