Repenting of “Yours” and “Mine”

Retailers have had their Christmas displays up since before Reformation Sunday. The kids have made their list and checked it twice, or three times or more. It won’t be long before the tree will start shedding its needles, the stockings emptied, the gifts unwrapped, toys broken, and the too small or out of style clothes returned. Before we know it, the annual celebration of Christmas will be over.

But for the children of God, we know that the gift of Christmas doesn’t ever end. Week in and week out, the Lord continues to shower His gifts on us. Every time the Lord gathers us to His house, and we are led to kneel at His table, the gift of forgiveness is repeatedly granted to us. It is nothing we deserve. It comes to us freely!

The fourth stanza of the stewardship hymn, “Forgive Us Lord for Shallow Thankfulness” (LSB 788) highlights both this gift and our response.

Teach us, O Lord, true thankfulness divine, that gives as Christ gave, never counting cost

To learn thankfulness is necessary. The parents of young children are well-versed in the fact that they must teach their children thankfulness. It does not come naturally. The spiritual genetics inherited from our parents allow us to think that the world revolves around us. When we receive something, there is an inward desire to think that we in some way deserve it.

But there is no way that we deserve anything we get from our Lord. We need that ongoing lesson from God Himself. Thankfulness toward God is worked in us by the Holy Spirit. God’s Word works this thanksgiving in us. We need this weekly reminder that Jesus didn’t consider “equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself” for us, to the point of death on a cross (Phil. 2:6). He didn’t bat an eye. He paid the price! Our life of stewardship is one of daily and weekly thanksgiving inspired by the Lord Himself.

*That knows no barrier of “yours” and “mine,”

Because Jesus gave us everything and more, there can be no ownership. The child at Christmas is quick to claim that the newly gifted toy is “mine!” But as Psalm 24:1 asserts, “The earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein.” There isn’t anything in creation that is ours. When we cling to and claim ownership of anything in creation, we are losing out on the continual gifts with which the Lord desires to shower upon us. Closed hands cannot receive anything new. We cling to the old and dead and miss the new thing that the Lord desires to do in and for us.

We are led to repent of the “yours” and “mine” and remove the lie that we have any ownership. In this we have the promise that God will continue to give to us. Not just at Christmas, but every Sunday at the altar in the Lord’s house.

Friends in Deed

At our November Soup & Sandwich, Tim – the director of the Food Pantry spoke to us, providing much information while answering a multitude of interesting questions. Guests who attended that day contributed 54 pounds of shelf stable food. The event made Jo reflect back to Tim's first visit with the church seven years ago. Jo decided to check the past records and found out that First Lutheran Church of Temple City has donated 44,190 pounds of food to the Pantry from all these years. As Tim stated in an email, "The amount of support we have received from your church and congregation has been phenomenal." Tim also praised the group of volunteers from First Lutheran Church of Temple City who work one Saturday a month. Friends In Deed Food Pantry gives us the opportunity to share our blessings with others.

Little Free Library

Some adult and children's Christmas books have been added to our Little Free Library. A number of the new children's books were purchased by Rachel Whitcher, who delights in choosing and buying classic children's literature. If you have some favorite Christmas books you want to share with others, please either give them to Jo Tschopp, the ushers, or put them in the Little Free Library yourself. We thank Vicki Trepanier for repairing the vandalism damage that had, recently, occurred.

Gratitude in the Season of Giving

AS WE ENTER THE BUSY HOLIDAY

SEASON of giving, I am filled with immense gratitude for each of our supporters. Your dedication, compassion, and unwavering commitment to LSSC's mission are truly inspiring. Today, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt thanks and share some thoughts on the spirit of service that defines our organization.

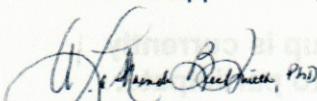

In Colossians 3:12-15, we are reminded to "clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another... And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity." These words resonate deeply with the mission of LSSC. They remind us that our actions, no matter how small, are woven together by love and a shared purpose.

I am continually inspired by the stories I hear from our clients, staff, and partners in the community. Stories of transformation, resilience, and hope. These stories are a testament to the incredible impact of your generous support. They remind us that our efforts are not in vain and that together we are making a real difference in the world.

As we move forward, let's face each challenge as an opportunity to embrace our neighbors in need and equip and empower them toward self-sufficiency. Most importantly, let's never lose sight of the reason we do what we do – to serve others with love and compassion.

In closing, I want to express my deepest gratitude once again. Thank you for your generous support, your dedication, and your unwavering spirit of service. Together, we are making a difference, one act of kindness at a time.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Dr. LaSharnda Beckwith
President and Chief Executive Officer

LP encourages others facing hardship to stay patient and trust in the program. "The 90 days I spent at LSSC saved my life. If you're struggling, stick with it. You'll find shelter, food, and support. Just work with the program, and it can transform your life." Because of the dedication of donors like you, we are able to provide the support that people like LP need to transform their lives.
