Repenting of “Feasts that Know No Fast”

Fresh off the Christmas season and the retail frenzy that accompanies it, January brings a shot of frigid air into the lives of the people we know and love. This is not a meteorological statement either. While it is true that January is one of the colder months for those in North America, the cold front blast that hits us is the full force of credit card spending that fueled the retail frenzy. The bills for the gifts, the parties, the food and the travel have now come due. The credit card makes things convenient, but it also requires more discipline than many can muster. When the bills come in January for December’s celebration, it really puts a damper on things. Congregations often make the same mistake in stewardship. We often charge forward in doing what we always do or starting new endeavors without counting the cost. But at the end of the month, or the end of year, when the bill comes due, the red ink on the congregational balance sheet smacks the people in the face like a stiff north wind in January. We hunkered down. We circle the wagons. We start to panic. The work of the Gospel suffers.

The fifth verse of “Forgive Us, Lord, for Shallow Thankfulness” (LSB 788) addresses this January situation. The words penned by William Watkins Reid are very needful for us to hear as we start a new year, while dealing with the bills of past efforts and expense.

“Forgive us, Lord for feast that knows not fast ...” This hits us hard, doesn’t it? We love when the money is flowing, the parties are going, and things are getting bigger and better. But there is a time in life, and most especially in our spiritual disciplines, that we need to fast. The purpose of a fast is to step back, lay something aside for a time, and replace it with meditation on Scripture and prayer. This is designed to keep us from turning something that may well be good into an idol that separates us from the God who loves us in Christ. “For joy in things that meanwhile starve the soul ...” In “The Parable of the Sower,” we hear Jesus talk about how the worries and cares of life choke out the growth of the seed of the Word that was planted. We know how this happens in our lives. Professional and youth sports do this. Materialism does this. Travel and leisure and do this. There is a list of things that we enjoy that starve the soul.

Friends In Deed offers a variety of perishable and non-perishable foods for the community to choose from. Currently, the most needed items are: canned tuna & chicken, cereal, peanut butter, rice, hearty soups,

Little Free Library

We thank the volunteers for donating quality books to our neighbors. It is wonderful to see a father and daughter at one point searching for books to read besides others who would pass by. There are many books to choose from. If you have any more that you wish to donate, please either give them to one of the ushers or you may even choose to place the book(s) in the Little Free Library yourself. But, please refrain from donating any Romance novels and/or magazines, and keep in mind that the books should be family-oriented. Thank you again.

Community Prayer Box

We continue to monitor our Community Prayer Box. It is checked regularly, and we consider it a privilege to be able to pray for those in need. Please contact Jo Tschopp for more information at: (626) 256-8333.

“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, 2 for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quite life, godly and dignified in every way.” 1 Timothy 1:1–2

Update on prayer request

From the daughter of Betty Nelson – Nancy Reese: “First Lutheran Church of Temple City has been important for Betty for many years, and many of you are her friends. Betty has had full time care at home since her stroke in August 2022. She is ‘stable’, but with progressive dementia and heart failure. She communicates with a smile, nod of her head, and occasional words. She enjoys going outside in her wheelchair and watching a little TV in the living room. She cannot swallow or move her arms, so she has a feeding tube in her stomach. She is still able to enjoy greeting cards. Thank you for loving her and keeping her in your prayers.”
