October Theme: Holy Spirit You are Welcome Here

In September, Pastor Fils-Aime began a series focusing on the Holy Spirit. On Sunday, September 25th he noted that as we listen to the Holy Spirit, heed the Spirit's leading, the fruit of the Spirit grow in us transforming and conforming us to the image of Christ. With that in mind, the Arts and Letters section on page 6 will focus on the fruit of the Spirit each month from this October issue through to June's issue. Below are the lyrics of a song we sing often. Invite the Holy Spirit into your home everyday.

Holy Spirit

by Jesus Culture

There's nothing worth more, that will ever come close
 No thing can compare, You're our living hope
 Your Presence, Lord.

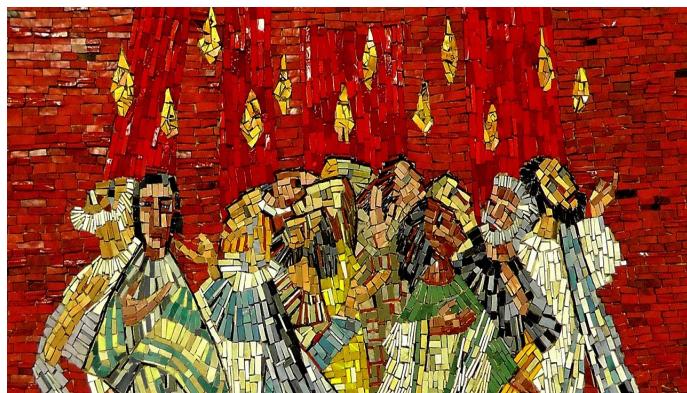

I've tasted and seen, of the sweetest of Loves
 Where my heart becomes free, and my shame is undone
 In Your Presence. Lord,

Holy Spirit You are welcome here
 Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere
 Your Glory God is what our hearts long for
 To be overcome by Your Presence Lord

Let us become more aware of Your Presence
 Let us experience the Glory of Your Goodness

Holy Spirit You are welcome here
 Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere
 Your Glory God is what our hearts long for
 To be overcome by Your Presence Lord

Pastor's Devotional

Jeremiah 8:21-22

Since my people are crushed, I am crushed;
I mourn, and horror grips me.
Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then is there no healing
for the wound of my people?

Jeremiah 8:21-22 is part of Jeremiah's lament, his passionate expression of grief. His lament comes in chapter 8 as a response to the people's continued disregard of his message of the impending destruction that will come if they do not turn from their sinfulness and disobedience and turn to God.

Much of chapter 8 contains warnings of what will happen to the people living in Judah if they continue along their present course. Jeremiah warns that their loss will be great, both economically and in the form of personal humiliation. He says, speaking on behalf of God in verse 10, "I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners." And in verse 13 "I will take away their harvest," declares the LORD. "There will be no grapes on the vine. There will be no figs on the tree, and their leaves will wither. What I have given them will be taken from them."

These threats and their eventual fulfillment were the last attempt of a gracious and loving God who had grown tired of a people's continual rejection of his offer of grace and mercy. God's preference is never to allow his people to experience injury and pain, the nature of God's character is that he would rather see us turn to him than be tortured and troubled. He would rather see us correct our ways than be corrected for our ways. God would rather be merciful than hurtful. But sometimes our actions leave God no other choice. Such was the case of the people who received Jeremiah's message. Still they would not change, after repeated attempts to get their attention. Jeremiah

8:6 says, "I have listened attentively, and they do not say what is right, none of them repent of their wickedness saying what have I done, each pursue their own course like a horse charging into battle." So, the last resort of a gracious God to people who will not listen, is to allow the circumstances of their actions to visit them, in hopes that their pain will produce repentance.

Jeremiah says something in the part of chapter 8 that anticipates what he will later write in Lamentations, that sometimes your misery is an indication of God's mercy, because if not for your misery you would not have turned to God to experience his mercy. And I know I am right about that because I know some of your stories and some of you have heard most of mine, how God allowed us to be tortured by our trouble, to be plagued by our pain and that became the impetus for us to turn to God and be found and comforted and saved by Him. What the people of Israel were about to experience, what you and I have had to suffer through is positive if it means that we turn to God.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

What are your thoughts on the final words Pastor's devotional?

Do you have a testimony of a time in your life when the only thing you could do is turn to God? What was it and what difference did it make, if any, in your life and your walk with God?

When you get an opportunity, share that testimony with someone.

MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH

Maryam and Vincent Morgan

Retiring And Pressing Toward the Goal

On September 17, 1963, Vincent Morgan landed in Haifa, Israel for the first time to attend Ulpan Akavia, a Hebrew language school. Fast forward to 1976, the Morgans were appointed by Missions Door to bring the Gospel Message to the Jewish people of New York City. After 47 years of faithfully bringing the Good News to all people, with a focus on Russian-speaking immigrants and partnering with ministries in Israel to assist pastors, serve and teach bible studies, Vincent and Maryam retired from Missions Door on June 30, 2023.

The Morgans thank you for your many years of support and prayers. Please pray for the Morgans as they contemplate where the Lord is leading them in this second phase of their lives.

- Planting a Russian-speaking congregation in their house;
- Move to York, Pennsylvania to disciple Jewish believers and establish a new ministry among Jewish believers in Pennsylvania;
- Serve on a mission board in Pennsylvania.

They are no longer requesting financial support, but any gifts can be made out to:

Church of the Resurrection of Christ
220-25 93rd Road,
Queens Village, NY 11428

If any funds are sent, they need to be designated how they are to be used.

Vincent and Maryam will be worshipping with us on October 22, 2023. Please join us after service, in the chapel, for a special Meet and Greet as we celebrate their retirement from Missions Door and honor them for their faithfulness to God's call.

Vincent and Maryam Morgan, missionaries with Missions Door since 1976, retired on June 30, 2023. Please join us on October 22, 2023 at 11am as we hear all that God is doing in their lives post-retirement. There will be a Meet & Greet in the Chapel after the service. You will also have an opportunity to visit the 'Garden of Love.'

Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Philippians 3:12

Arts and Letters

The Arts and Letters section of The Newsletter will focus on the fruit of the Spirit each month from this October issue through to June's issue.

The first of the fruits as listed in Galatians 5:22-23 is Love. The love God pours into us overflows to those in our sphere of influence. I have submitted a monoprint of leaves as the movement of the leaves is an expression of God's grace. Despite my lack of steadfastness with God, in spite of my sins God still pours out love and grace to me which fuels my creativity.

Please submit your artistic expressions of the Fruit of the Spirit. Your submissions can be anything from a poem about peace to a picture of a sweater you knitted or crocheted as an expression of patience or faithfulness.

Pastor may adopt new themes throughout 2023-2024 calendar year, yet the Holy Spirit is ALWAYS present and active. We look forward to your submissions. When you send in your work, be sure to note your full name and contact information with a few words about yourself. For visual artwork please note the title, medium, and size of the piece, and how it expresses the fruit you feel it represents. Written pieces should be no more than 250-300 words. Finally, forward all submissions by email to Sharrata Hunt at sm-hunt@hotmail.com.

The calendar for this season with the deadline for submissions is below. We covet your prayers for an inspiring season ahead and spiritual growth through the arts.
