DAILY BREAD

BEING A CALENDAR FOR READING THROUGH THE WORD OF GOD IN A YEAR

“Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.” —Psalm 119:140 (KJV)

MY DEAR FLOCK,—The approach of another year stirs up within me new desires for your salvation, and for the growth of those of you who are saved. “God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus” (Phil. 1:8). What the coming year is to bring forth, who can tell? There is plainly a weight lying on the spirits of all good men, and a looking for some strange work of judgment upon this land. There is need now to ask that solemn question: “If in a safe land you are so trusting, what will you do in the thicket of the Jordan?” (Jer. 12:5).

Those believers will stand firmest who have no dependence upon self or upon creatures but upon Jehovah our Righteousness. We must be driven more to our Bibles, and to the mercy-seat, if we are to stand in the evil day. Then we shall be able to say, like David, “The insolent utterly deride me, but I do not turn away from your law” (Ps. 119:51). “Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words” (Ps. 119:161).

It has long been in my mind to prepare a plan for Scripture reading, in which as many as were made willing by God might agree, so that the whole Bible might be read once by you in the year, and all might be feeding in the same portion of the green pasture at the same time.

I am quite aware that such a plan is accompanied with many...

DANGERS.

(1) Formality. — We are such weak creatures that any regularly returning duty is apt to degenerate into a lifeless form. The tendency of reading the Word by a fixed rule may, in some minds, be to create this skeleton religion. This is to be the peculiar sin of the last days: “having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power” (2 Tim. 3:5). Guard against this. Let the reading plan itself perish rather than this rust eat up your souls.

(2) Self-righteousness. — Some, when they have devoted their set time to reading of the Word and accomplished their prescribed portion, may be tempted to look at themselves with self-complacency. Many, I am persuaded, are living without any divine work on their soul—unpardoned and unsanctified, and ready to perish—who spend their appointed times in private and family devotion. This is going to hell with a lie in their right hand.

(3) Careless reading. — Few tremble at the Word of God. Few, in reading it, hear the voice of Jehovah, which is full of majesty. Some, by having so large a portion, may be tempted to weary of it, as Israel did of the daily manna, saying, “We loathe this worthless food” (Num. 21:5), and to read it in a slight and careless manner. This would be fearfully provoking to God. Take heed lest that word be true of you: “You say, ‘What a weariness this is;’ and you snort at it, says the LORD of hosts” (Mal. 1:13).

(4) A yoke too heavy to bear. — Some may engage in reading with eagerness for a time, and afterwards feel it a burden, grievous to be borne. They may find conscience dragging them through the appointed task without any relish of the heavenly food. If this be the case with any, throw aside the fetter, and feed at liberty in the sweet garden of God. My desire is not to cast a snare upon you but to be a helper of your joy.

If there be so many dangers, why propose such a plan at all? To this I answer that the best things are accompanied with danger, as the fairest flowers are often gathered in the clefts of some dangerous precipice. Let us weigh...

THE ADVANTAGES.

(1) The whole Bible will be read through in an orderly manner in the course of a year. — The Old Testament once, the New Testament and Psalms twice. I fear many of you never read the whole Bible; and yet it is all equally divine: "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete" (2 Tim. 3:16-17). If we pass over some parts of Scripture, we shall be incomplete Christians.

(2) Time will not be wasted in choosing what portions to read. — Often believers are at a loss to determine towards which part of the mountains of spices they should bend their steps. Here the question will be solved at once in a very simple manner.

(3) Parents will have a regular subject upon which to examine their children. — It is much to be desired that family worship were made more instructive than it generally is. The mere reading of the chapter is often too like water spilt on the ground. Let it be read by every member of the family beforehand, and then the meaning and application drawn out by simple question-and-answer. The calendar will be helpful in this. Friends also, when they meet, will have a subject for profitable conversation in the portions read that day. The meaning of difficult passages may be inquired from the more judicious and ripe Christians, and the fragrance of simpler Scriptures spread abroad.

(4) The pastor will know in what part of the pasture the flock are feeding. — He will thus be enabled to speak more suitably to them on the Sabbath; and both pastor and elders will be able to drop a word of light and comfort in visiting from house to house which will be more readily responded to.

(5) The sweet bond of Christian love and unity will be strengthened. — We shall be often led to think of those dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, here and elsewhere, who agree to join with us in reading those portions. We shall oftener be led to agree on earth touching something we shall ask of God. We shall pray over the same promises, mourn over the same confessions, praise God in the same songs, and be nourished by the same words of eternal life.

DIRECTIONS

FOR M'CHEYNE'S DAILY BIBLE READING CALENDAR

- 1. The first column contains the day of the month. The next two columns contain the chapters to be read. The top of the page distinguishes between family reading and private reading.
- 2. The head of the family should previously read over the chapter indicated for the family worship and mark two or three of the most prominent verses upon which he may dwell, asking a few simple questions.
- 3. Frequently the chapter named in the calendar for family reading might be read more suitably in private; in which case the head of the family should recommend that it be read in private, and the chapter for private reading may be used in the family.
- 4. The metrical version of the Psalms should be read or sung through at least once in the year. It is truly an admirable translation from the Hebrew and is frequently more correct than the prose version. If three verses be sung at each diet of family worship, the whole Psalms will be sung through in the year.
- 5. Let the conversation at the family meals frequently turn upon the chapter read; thus every meal will be a sacrament, being sanctified by the Word and prayer.
- 6. Let our private reading prevent the dawning of the day. Let God's voice be the first we hear in the morning. Mark two or three of the richest verses, and pray over every line and word of them.

Let the marks be neatly done, never as to abuse a copy of the Bible.

- 7. In meeting believers on the street or elsewhere, when an easy opportunity offers, return to the chapters read that morning. This will be a blessed exchange for idle words, which waste the soul and grieve the Holy Spirit of God. In writing letters to those at a distance, make use of the provision of the day gathered.
- 8. Above all, use the Word as a lamp to your feet and a light to your path—your guide in perplexity, your armor in temptation, your food in times of faintness. Hear the constant cry of the great Intercessor,

"SANCTIFY THEM THROUGH THY TRUTH: THY WORD IS TRUTH." (John 17:17, KJV)

ROBERT MURRAY M'CHEYNE was a minister in the Church of Scotland from 1835 to 1843. He recorded the introduction to this daily Bible reading plan for his congregation on December 30, 1842. Exactly three months later, M'Cheyne was laid to rest after dying of typhus. He was twenty-nine. Thanks in large part to Andrew Bonar's Memoir and Remains of Robert Murray M'Cheyne, his all too brief life continues to make a difference for the sake of the Gospel to this very day.

This material has been updated with modern language and punctuation. Bible quotations have been updated to the English Standard Version.

TRUTHFORLIFE®

Truth For Life is the teaching ministry of Alistair Begg and is committed to teaching the Bible with clarity and relevance so that unbelievers will be converted, believers will be established, and local churches will be strengthened.
