

PCOM SERMON NOTES

February 1, 2026 • Dan van Voorhis

Sermon Series: Epiphany: Nothing but Christ

Scripture: Matthew 5:1-12; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31

Sermon Notes:

God's Foolishness - 1 Corinthians 1:18-31

Paul begins his letter to the Corinthians (and Jackson began last week's sermon) with an emphasis on

_____.

This unity is to be found in the _____ of the _____.

The Cross is the _____ of God.

To the World, the cross looks like _____.

The "religious" want _____.

The "worldly" want _____.

The Cross gives us _____, _____,
and _____.

Questions for this week on reverse side.

Questions for this week:

1. Can you think of an example when the “expectations” and “reality” in your own life made you reconsider how you say things?
2. Why might it be encouraging (instead of embarrassing) that God chooses the “lowly” of the World?
3. Do you find yourself more enticed by the “religious” things of the World or the “worldly” things? How does the Cross help center you back on Jesus?

Next week’s Scripture: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12 with Pastor Jackson.
