Call to Worship:

Pastor: We come today not only to sing, but to become the song God is writing in the world.

Congregation: We come not only to pray, but to become the answer to someone's prayer.

Pastor: The Lord calls us beyond empty rituals into lives of mercy and justice.

Congregation: He invites us to share our bread with the hungry, to welcome the stranger, to lift the burdened.

Pastor: This is the worship God desires— hands open, hearts awake, love in motion.

Congregation: Lord, teach us the fast You choose. Make us repairers of what is broken.

All: Let us worship the God who turns compassion into light and obedience into healing. Amen.

Opening Prayer:

Gracious and holy God, we come into this place carrying many things— full schedules, heavy hearts, distracted minds. But You call us to something deeper than words on our lips or songs in a room.

You call us to a faith that feeds the hungry, a worship that frees the oppressed, a devotion that becomes love in action.

Open our eyes today to see as You see. Soften our hearts toward the needs around us. Teach us the fast You choose— a life poured out for others just as Christ poured Himself out for us.

As we worship, shape us into Your people— repairers of broken walls, restorers of ruined places, bearers of Your light in a hurting world.

We offer this time to You in the name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name.
 Thy Kingdom come,
 thy will be done on earth
 as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our sins,
 as we forgive those who sin against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the Kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 forever. Amen
