1. The Parable Told (v. 4-8)

- A. It's the same seed
- B. It's the same sower
- C. The soil is different

2. The Reason for Teaching in Parables (v. 9-10)

- A. Some people have hard hearts and will not understand (v. 10; Isaiah 6:9)
- B. The focus should be which plants are thriving, not just surviving

3. The Parable Explained (v. 11-15)

- A. Never interested (v. 11-12)
- B. A short interest that never takes root and doesn't last (v. 13)

C. Faith seems to survive, but not thrive because of distractions (v. 14)

D. Faith that is solid and bears fruit (v. 15)

Application

Takeaway 1. If you are one of the first two soils, we are glad you are here!

Takeaway 3. The main point of the parable isn't the crop, it's the relationship with Jesus. The crop is a result of the relationship.

Takeaway 4. What are some opportunities to share about Jesus?

A. Natural: family, friends, co-workers, classmates, teammates

B. Organized: AWANA, Ole', youth group, men's/women's ministry

Takeaway 5. What if I'm not good at sharing my faith?

A. It takes practice

B. It takes tools

C. Go for first downs, not always touch downs

What is your next step to helping others take their next step?
