"You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: Love your neighbor as you love yourself. The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments." --Jesus (Matthew 22)

Dear Christ Follower,

You are loved beyond measure by the God of the universe. God is alive and working in our world right in the middle of all this mess and brokenness. We are going to spend the season of Lent living out our faith through actions of love. We are challenging you to do one act of love every day for the next 40 days. Pray over one person every day for the next 40 days. Let your hearts be turned to the work that is before us. We are called, equipped, and sent.

So let's get to work dear ones.

Challenge: 40 Days, 40 People, 40 Prayers

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres." --Paul (1 Corinthians 13)

If not us, then who
If not me and you
Right now

It's time for us to do something

If not now, then when

Will we see an end

To all this pain

It's not enough to do nothing

It's time for us to do something

We are the salt of the earth
We are a city on a hill
We're never gonna change the world
By standing still
No we won't stand still

"Do Something" by Matthew West

"You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you that you may be children of your Father in heaven."

--Jesus (Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5)
