Call to Worship

Leader: Come! Come from our sanctuary or from your home. Come at 11 AM on Sunday or any time during the week. Come whenever and wherever you are. Come! Worship is called in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit!

People: We come, ready to begin the Lenten journey to the cross, and to the empty tomb.

Leader: In a world where scarcity seems to be the name of the game, abundance feels like healing.

People: Maybe that's what makes Jesus so great. He comes to us in our time of greatest need, and offers abundant love and peace.

Opening Prayer

God, thank you for this opportunity to have a different journey through Lent. As we join together on the way to the cross, and to the empty tomb, teach us through Mary of Bethany. She is an example of true devotion and discipleship. Open our hearts and minds to all that we can learn through her story. Deepen our faith in Christ, and our sense of Christian community. Amen.

Scripture Lesson

John 12:1-8

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those reclining with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus's feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."
