SUNDAY'S THOUGHT

Successful Parenting is rooted in principles drawn from the scriptures. As parents, we should seek to raise our children in a way that aligns with God's wisdom and love. Scriptural parenting isn't about perfection; it's about faithfulness, love, and pointing our children toward God. We should model Christ-like Behavior: leading by example and displaying virtues such as love, patience, humility, and forgiveness. Unconditional love and affirmation help children feel secure and valued, reflecting God's love for His children. When parents create a nurturing environment that reflects Christ's love and teachings, our children develop into compassionate, faith-filled individuals.

A successful parent is One Who Faithfully transfers principles that will equip their children to fulfill God's will for their lives. - Charles Stanley

He Hears Me!!!

Our Father hears you. It's not a passive, distant hearing, but an active, intimate one. God listens, truly listens, to your prayers, cries, and words of praise. This is a love so deep, so personal that it's almost overwhelming to consider.

You're not speaking into a void. You're not whispering into the wind. You're talking to the God of the Universe, the Creator who molded the mountains, breathed life into humanity, and still bends His ear to hear you. He is attuned to your voice. He recognizes the cry of your heart. He hears. And He answers.

So, let's take a moment to appreciate this incredible truth. You are loved by a God who hears you. As you go through your day, let's carry this assurance in our hearts.

"My Father hears my voice. He listens to my cry for mercy. Therefore, I will call on Him as long as I live."

*I love the Lord, because He hears
My voice and my pleas.
2 Because He has inclined His ear to
me,
Therefore, I will call upon Him as long as I live.*
