SUNDAY'S THOUGHT

Parents have a crucial role in shaping their children's spiritual foundation. Parents equip their children to navigate life with faith, character, and purpose.

They are the primary influence in a child's early years, providing the first exposure to spiritual beliefs and practices. Parents can model and instill spiritual values and disciplines through daily routines such as prayer, reading sacred texts, and participating in worship services. Additionally, they create an environment that fosters moral and ethical development by teaching principles such as kindness, compassion, and integrity. These values form a solid foundation for children's spiritual growth and guide their character development.

Ultimately, the example set by parents in living out their faith authentically and consistently has a lasting impact on their children's lives.

Never Alone

Jesus is our constant companion, and He has promised to never leave us nor forsake us. When we're struggling, we can take comfort in knowing that Jesus is always with us. He is our helper, our friend, and our deliverer. We can trust Him to guide us through life's ups and downs, and to be there for us when we need Him most.

Jesus offers an unwavering presence through times of joy and trial, reminding us that we are Never Alone. His companionship brings peace, strength, and hope, helping us navigate life's challenges with faith and confidence. He is always with us, and we can trust Him to guide us through life's journey. Let us hold onto this promise and trust in His faithfulness. Through prayer and a personal relationship with Him, we experience His love and guidance daily.

8 The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."
