Prayer for Mother Figures

Thank You, Lord, for my life in You. Thank You for the path and the plans You have for me (Isaiah 29:11), and I consider it a great honor to represent You in the lives of many.

In Isaiah 58:1, You said, "Sing, O barren woman, you who never bore a child; burst into song, shout for joy, you who were never in labor; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband," says the LORD. And I do sing, Lord! I sing because You have called me to be the mother to many. You have given me your love, wisdom, knowledge, and revelation. You have given me Your gifts and Your power; You have blessed me to be a blessing. I will speak with boldness and will not shrink back from what You have called me to do. May my words be seasoned and always palatable.

I will think and speak on those good things found in Phil 4:8. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, Oh Lord, my strength and redeemer.

Thank You for entrusting me with those You have called me to nurture and mentor in You. You have filled my heart with joy as I receive them. You have equipped me for this work. I trust You, Lord. I do not fear because You are with me. I can do this because You have strengthened me. Your grace is sufficient; it is all I need. When I am weak, it is Your strength I rely on. I will stand in the gap for them.

I pray Eph 1:17-20 and Col 1:9-13 over my children. I ask You, God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give my children spiritual wisdom and insight so that they might grow in their knowledge of God. I pray that their hearts will be flooded with light so they can understand the confident hope You have given to those You called-Your holy people who are Your rich and glorious inheritance.

I also pray that they will understand the incredible greatness of Your power for us who believe in You. This is the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at Your right hand in the heavenly realms.

For this cause, I also, since the day I heard it, do not cease to pray for my children and to desire that they might be filled with the knowledge of Your will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, That they might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of You, God; Strengthened with all might, according to Your glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness; Giving thanks unto the You, Father, which has made them to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who has delivered them from the power of darkness, and has translated them into the kingdom of Your dear Son. In Jesus Name. Amen!!!
