

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2023 PROPHECY THROUGH JOYCE AIELLO

“The word of the Lord this morning is threefold: Revelation, Conviction, and Rebirth! As we look at our world, Revelation is being released concerning sin! I am releasing a Revelation of the sin in the hearts of men. You are seeing the results of that sin and Conviction is going to follow. Great Conviction is going to roam the streets, the narrow paths, the dusty way and it's going to bring men to their knees who have never bowed. Rebirth will result! As we look at the birth of My precious Son, He brought these to the world--that's what the cross was that laid before Him! It was a Revelation of hope--a Revelation of time to come when all would be under the blood.

Where is your 'secret place of the Most High'? Now is the time to find that secret place and be comfortable there. It is your rescue and your strength. A Rebirth is coming, but before it does you must be hidden in Me. You must get a Revelation of Glory from Me! The world's Revelation is sin--yours is Glory! Pray for you to have the vision of Glory--the strength of the Almighty God--not the strength of man, for it is futile! They will not win! Find that secret place, hang on to Me and have a relationship with Me like you've never had before. I admonish you My children that this is the time to be sober and strong and know that your redemption, your protection, and your place in My plan is coming forth. Be ready for it! Be ready for it!”

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2024 PROPHECY THROUGH JOYCE AIELLO

Some of you came in this morning with great fear. You fear things as you look at your life, and the lack of knowing “Where am I going next?” You ask, “What is beyond this moment for me?”

And the Lord would say to you that “I am not A god, I am THE God! I am THE God that formed you and I picked up all the pieces of your life that were scattered before you met Me. I picked up those pieces and placed them in My left hand. I removed them from your life and recreated those pieces into a Tapestry. Each of you has a Tapestry for eternity and that Tapestry continues to be weaved and molded together and will be presented to you one day. But today, do not walk in fear! Fear is not from Me! Rebuke that fear in your life and know that My hand, as THE God of this universe, is not asleep! I am not far away! I am close to you— near you and closer than your very breath. And if you will call out to Me, lean upon me, trust Me with the little seed that is in you--that tiny seed that I've already planted and is growing. It needs your nurture, and it needs My nurture! You cannot do this on your own! We must partner together, we must have a love relationship, and I will never fail you or leave you. I will never forsake those that I've chosen, and you are one of them!"

SUNDAY, MARCH 24TH 2024 WORD GIVEN THROUGH CHRISTEN DAVIS

This morning as I was driving here to church, I passed some oak trees with their dead leaves on them. As I turned here into the church and into the parking lot, I looked at the oak trees out front with the dead leaves, the massive dead leaves and I knew God was speaking to me and speaking to the church. He says, "Why are we holding onto the dead? The new growth can't come forth if we are holding on to the dead. The new buds, the new life I have for you can't come forth if we are holding onto the dead. Shed it. Leave it. Leave it here at the altar. I have much for you, I have much for this body, but we need to lay it down in the name of Jesus."
