

NEW TO GC?

Stop by the Guest Connection Desk today after our worship assembly. We'd love to meet you!

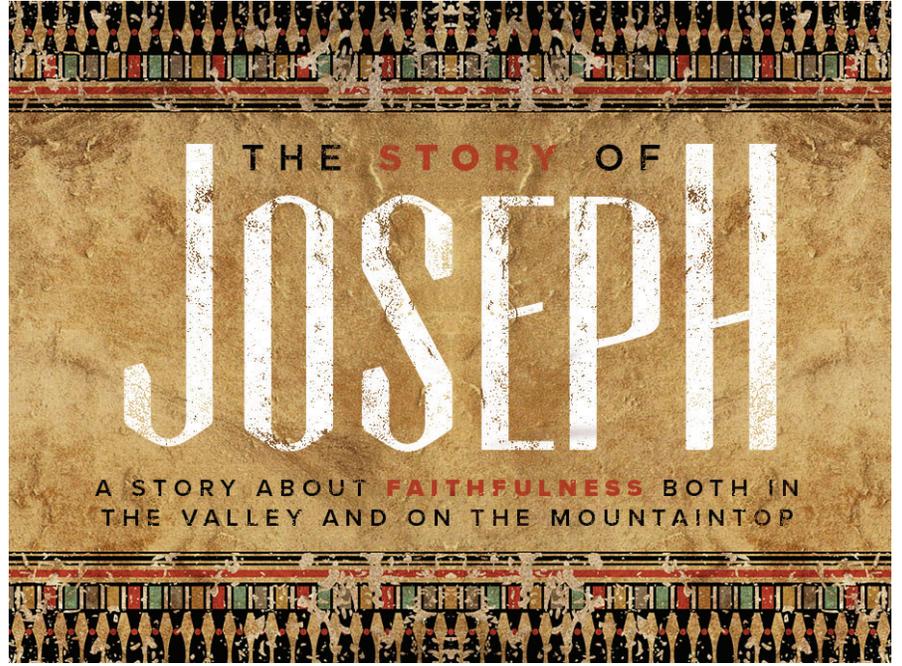

WELCOME!

I have often had people tell me that the story of Joseph is one of their favorites. I think there are a number of reasons why this is true. For some, the example of God's faithfulness in the midst of trial and tribulation is what does it. For others, it's the reunification of a broken family near the end of the story that makes it a favorite. As I said, there are many possibilities.

If you give me a minute, I'll share my personal reason. Genesis 39 is one of my favorite chapters in the Bible, and not just because it preaches well—although it certainly does. It's my favorite because of the dedication Joseph displays in his quest to stay faithful to God...all when it would have been so simple to just give in. When Joseph was faced with temptation, he ran. He didn't see how close to the line he could walk. His aim was to be as far away from the line as possible.

I love that this is true about Joseph, and I want it to be true about me, as well.

Blessings,
Paul

PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

"In your anger do not sin; when you are on your beds, search your hearts and be silent. Offer right sacrifices and trust in the Lord." (Psalm 4:4-5)

Dear Father, in times of opposition and disappointment may we search our hearts for the right response—to say and do that which is helpful without taking offense or revenge. May we first turn to you, O God, for discernment and wisdom in all the circumstances of life. We thank you for guidance and inspiration. May the conscience be a guide that is first guided by your word and your Spirit. In the name of Christ, amen.

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU?

MAKE WAVES: Have you ever seen the commercial where one person does something kind? Then, a person who witnesses this kindness, is motivated to do something kind. Followed by another person seeing this kindness who feels moved to also be kind. It's not just in commercials. It's in real life, too. Waves of generosity. Lives changed. And, it all begins with one act of kindness.

REMEMBER THIS: "I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength." (Philippians 4:13 NLT)

MAKE WAVES: We were created in God's image. God sent Jesus to show us the best way to be human. But God knew we'd need help. That's why God sent us the Holy Spirit. With the power of the Spirit, we can produce fruit that points others to Jesus. Every month, kids discover something about God's character and how they can reflect or respond to that character because they are created in God's image.

REMEMBER THIS: "The fruit the holy spirit produces is love, joy and peace. It is being patient, kind and good. It is being faithful and gentle and having control of oneself." (Galatians 5:22-23a NIV)
