

NEW TO GC?

Stop by the Guest Connection Desk today after our worship assembly. We'd love to meet you!

WELCOME!

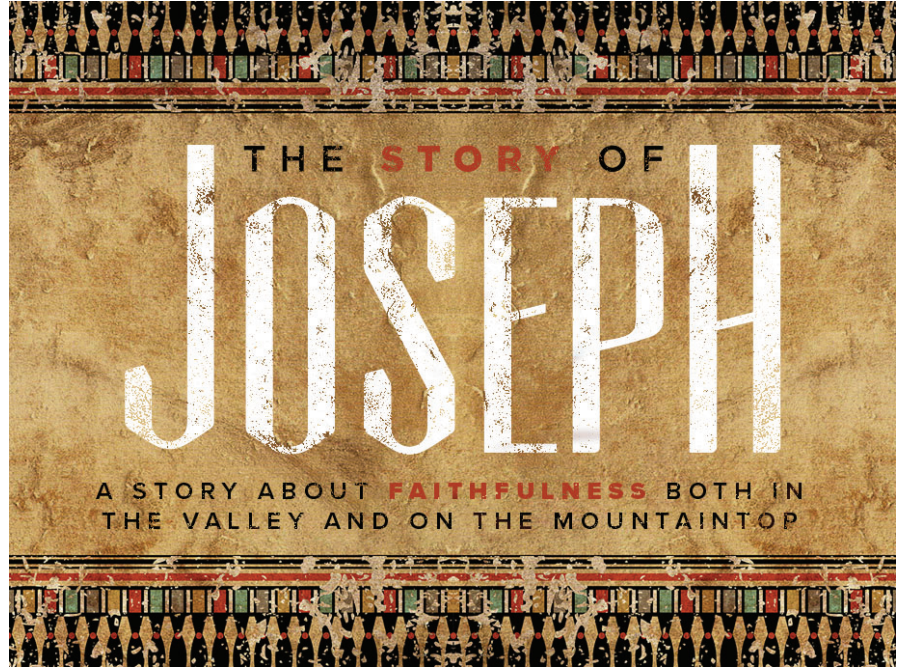

As we contemplate the monumental decision handed down Friday by the supreme court, it is my prayer that we do so from the perspective of those seeking to be like Jesus in this world. The following was written by a friend of mine who is also a minister. It is worthy of consideration.

- Paul

"I'm overjoyed to hear of the Supreme Court's ruling! It will certainly come with complications, but it will also create opportunities for Jesus' people to show we are not just anti-abortion, but truly pro-human and pro-life; as we advocate not only for the unborn, but for all human beings, the image-bearers of God.

May we do our best to love and help those who are outraged at this ruling, and the young desperate women who are considering abortion, and the children born into extreme poverty, and the couples who are experiencing complications in pregnancy, and so many others who need to see the love of Jesus from us. I'm rejoicing and also considering where this creates opportunities for the church."

PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

"Turn, O LORD, and deliver me; save me because of your unfailing love. No one remembers you when he is dead. Who praises you from the grave? I am worn out from groaning; all night long I flood my bed from weeping and drench my couch with tears. My eyes grow weak with sorrow; they fail because of all my foes. Away from me, all you who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping. The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer. All my enemies will be ashamed and dismayed, they will turn back in sudden disgrace." (Psalm 6:4-10)

Father, we are altogether sure that your unfailing love will deliver those of Yours who are being tormented. You, O God, we pray, will dry up the tears of those who cry for mercy. May the ones who ridicule those of faith be put to shame for their unwarranted oppression. To you, O Father, we pray. Amen.

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU?

MAKE WAVES: Have you ever seen the commercial where one person does something kind? Then, a person who witnesses this kindness, is motivated to do something kind. Followed by another person seeing this kindness who feels moved to also be kind. It's not just in commercials. It's in real life, too. Waves of generosity. Lives changed. And, it all begins with one act of kindness.

REMEMBER THIS: "I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength." (Philippians 4:13 NLT)

MAKE WAVES: We were created in God's image. God sent Jesus to show us the best way to be human. But God knew we'd need help. That's why God sent us the Holy Spirit. With the power of the Spirit, we can produce fruit that points others to Jesus. Every month, kids discover something about God's character and how they can reflect or respond to that character because they are created in God's image.

REMEMBER THIS: "The fruit the holy spirit produces is love, joy and peace. It is being patient, kind and good. It is being faithful and gentle and having control of oneself." (Galatians 5:22-23a NIV)
