

There Is a Habitation

860

E♭/E♭

You have come to Mount Zion, the city of God. – Hebrews 12:22

1. There is a hab-i-tation, Built by the liv-ing God, For all of ev-'ry
 2. A cit-y with foun-da-tions, Firm as th'e-ter-nal throne; Nor wars nor des-o-
 3. No night is there, no sor-row, No death, and no de-cay; No yes-ter-day, no
 4. With-in its pearl-y por-tals, An-ge'-lic ar-mies sing, With glo-ri-fied im-

Refrain

na-tion Who seek that grand a-bode.
 la-tions Shall ev-er move a stone. O Zi-on, Zi-on, I long thy mor-row But one e-ter-nal day. O Zi-on, love-ly Zi-on, mor-tals, The prais-es of its King.

Repeat refrain after last stanza gates to see; O love-ly Zi-on, love-ly Zi-on, When shall I dwell in thee?

WORDS: Love H. Jameson (w. 1882)
 MUSIC: James H. Rosecrans (w. 1882)

ZION CITY
 7.6.7.6. w/REFRAIN