4. The Church's Unholy History (Replacement Theology and other debacles)

Classes designed both for all those going on this year's Remnant Tour AND for all who will be standing and praying for us and for Israel...

The Church's Unholy History

- ▶ “Never Forget”. That is the Jewish people's response to the Holocaust. They (and we) must never forget those who were systematically slaughtered.
- ▶ They must also never let humanity forget the evils of which they are capable, lest the truth of those horrors fade over time, dooming mankind to repeat them.
- ▶ If only the Church adopted the same wisdom concerning its own history....

Bitter Root – Bitter Fruit

- ▶ Anti-Semitism is nothing new under the sun. As far back as the Book of Esther (approximately 486-465 BC), Haman plotted to destroy all Jewish life.
- ▶ Yet since the Jewish people emerged in Genesis 12, God has miraculously delivered them from extermination time and again.
- ▶ What many Christians are unaware of is the link between Anti-Semitism and the Church.
- ▶ As early as 130 AD Justin Martyr and Origen were teaching hatred against the Jewish people.

Emperor Constantine

- ▶ Constantine's reign as Roman emperor (A.D. 306-337) dramatically changed the direction of Christianity, stemming from his strategy for unifying his empire by creating a "catholic"—meaning universal—church that would blend elements from many religions into one —
- ▶ which ultimately meant eliminating the practice of Judaism.

Replacing holidays...

AT THE COUNCIL OF NICEA (A.D. 325), CHURCH AUTHORITIES ESSENTIALLY REPLACED THE BIBLICAL PASSOVER WITH EASTER, A POPULAR HOLIDAY ROOTED IN ANCIENT SPRINGTIME FERTILITY CELEBRATIONS.

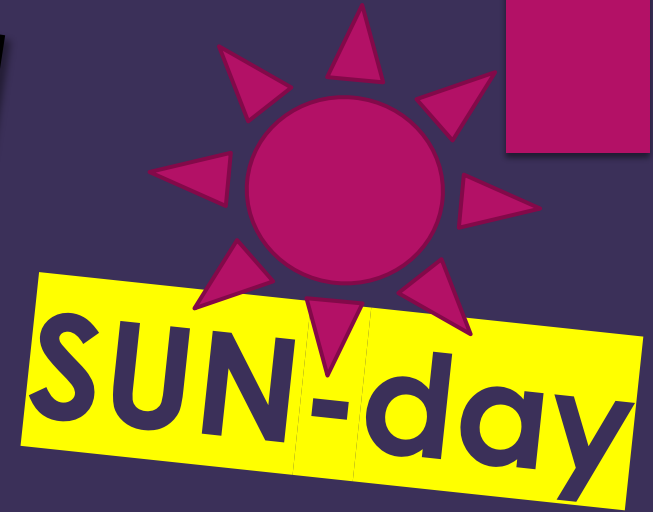

Replacing holidays...

Endorsing this change, Constantine announced:

“It appeared an unworthy thing that in the celebration of this most holy feast [Easter] we should follow the practice of the Jews, who have impiously defiled their hands with enormous sin, and are, therefore, deservedly afflicted with blindness of soul ... Let us then have nothing in common with the detestable Jewish crowd”

(Eusebius, Life of Constantine 3, 18-19, Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, 1979, second series, Vol. 1, pp. 524-525).

- Constantine's affection for sun worship led him to endorse Sunday, the first day of the week and a day dedicated to honoring the sun, as a weekly day of rest in the Roman empire .
- This created considerable hardship on those Jews and true Christians who continued to keep the biblical Sabbath on the seventh day of the week.
- A century later the Council of Laodicea essentially outlawed Sabbath-keeping and Christian observance of the biblical Holy Days.

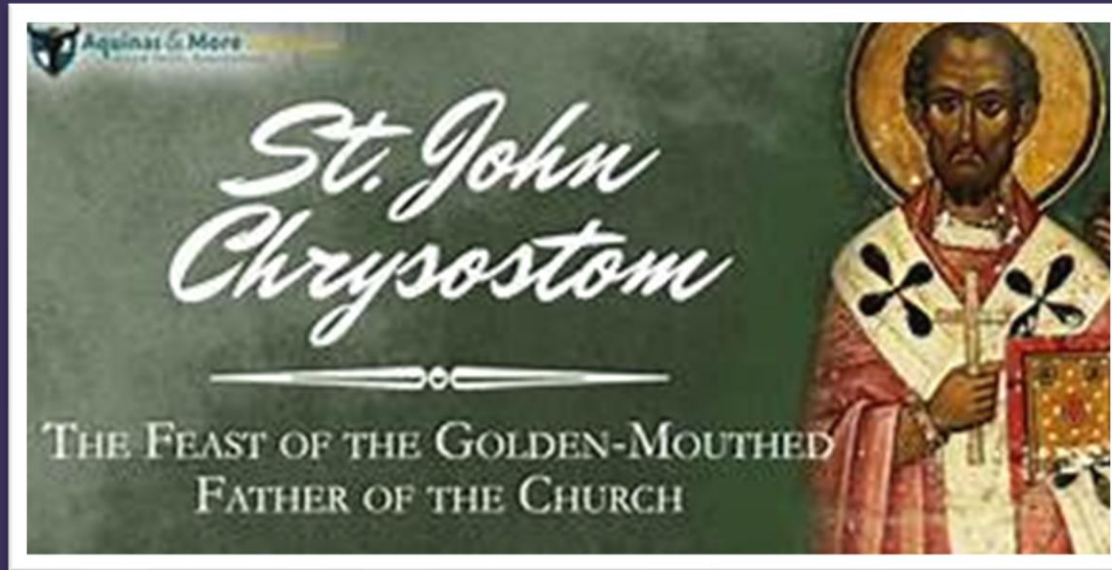

Replacing holidays...

Have you ever wondered why the Gentile Church does not celebrate the holidays the Lord set forth in the Bible, but rather holidays that were instituted by Church Fathers?

Writings such as St John Chrysostom's played a huge role:

“The festivals of the pitiful and miserable Jews are soon to march upon us one after the other and in quick succession: the feast of Trumpets, the feast of Tabernacles, the fasts. There are many in our ranks who say they think as we do. Yet some of these are going to watch the festivals and others will join the Jews in keeping their feasts and observing their fasts. I wish to drive this perverse custom from the Church right now... I am afraid that some Christians may partake in the Jews' transgressions...”

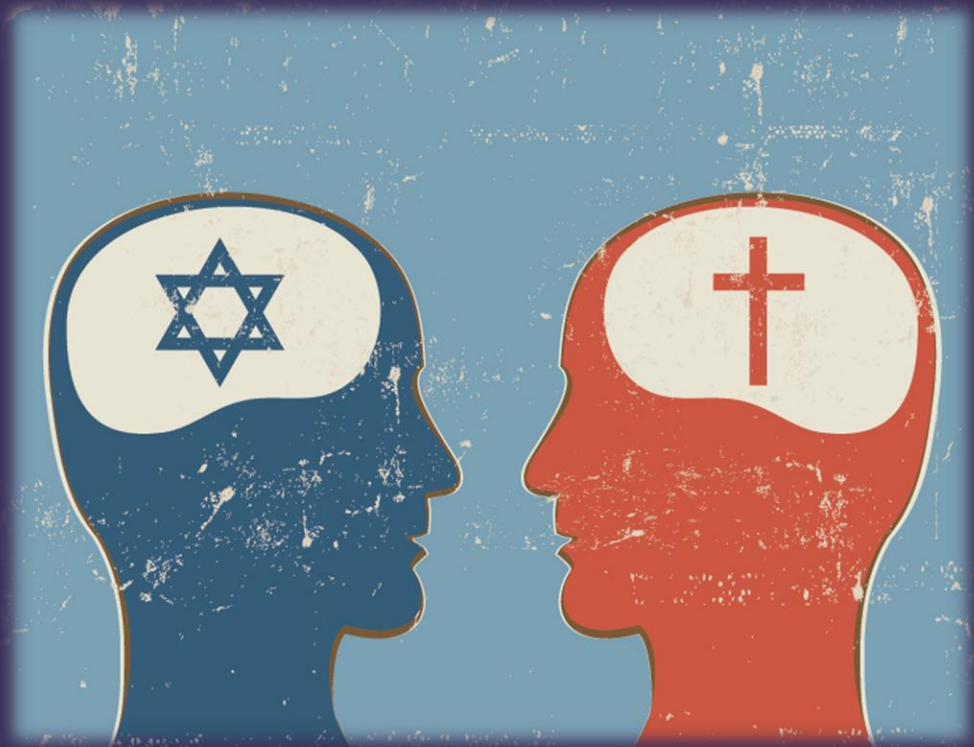

- Many other early seeds of anti-Semitism can be found among the writings of the highly revered “golden mouthed” Church Father, John Chrysostom (AD 347-407).
- In his work, First Homily Against the Jews. He wrote, “The synagogue is worse than a brothel and a drinking shop; it is a den of scoundrels, a temple of demons, the cavern of devils, a criminal assembly of the assassins of Christ... I hate the Jews... It is the duty of all Christians to hate the Jews.”

These early travesties were echoed and continued throughout Church history. The chasm between the original Jewishness of the Gospel and the newly fabricated Gentile identity of the Church festered over centuries.

For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him,

~ Romans 10:12 NIV

From Luther's Legacy to Nazi Ideology

This poisonous Anti-Semitism was tragically handed down to theologians like Martin Luther. He courageously penned the 95 Theses, which sparked the Protestant Reformation and did so much good for the church - However, he had a painful blind spot in his latter years that ultimately set the stage for millions of people to lose their lives:

His hatred toward the Jewish people.

- This horrific sentiment gave credence to Nazi ideology and its propagandistic war on the Jews. Luther's writings were the very same words the Nazis used to promote their genocidal incitements.
- The predominant silence of the German Church during the Holocaust, a church heavily influenced by Luther (the Reich church was Lutheran), proved to be deadly.

Forging a New Legacy of Love

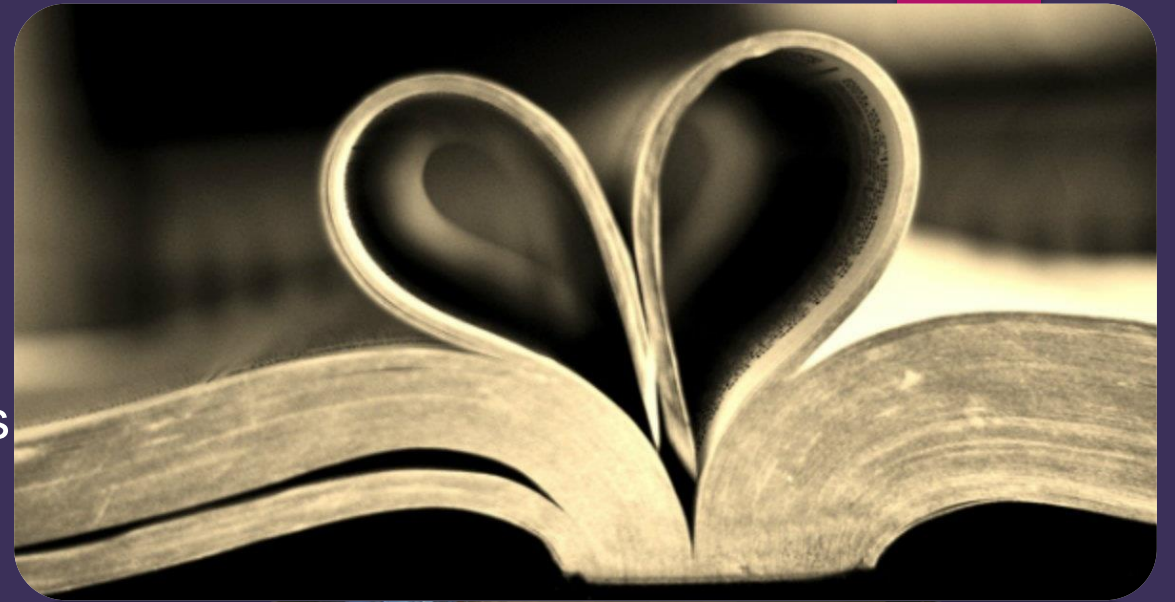

Never again. Ignorance is no excuse.

Jewish people are very aware of the Church's sordid past and it has caused them to shudder in terror at the sight of the cross. We as believers must be informed of and sensitive to this tragic history, lest we be caught unprepared and in any way facilitate its repetition.

Forging a New Legacy of Love

- Although a measure of rending our hearts and repenting is in order as we acknowledge the evils of the past, we must also be those who willingly embrace God's heart for His people.
- The LORD declared concerning His people:
"I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness." Jeremiah 31:3
- As believers today, each of us has the opportunity to forge a new legacy of love and understanding that reflects the Apostle Paul's heart for his brethren:

Replacement Theology

OR WHITE-WASHED ANTI-SEMITISM

REPLACEMENT THEOLOGY

◦ Does God Mean
What He Says?

Replacement theology is a theological system based solely upon the premise that a Covenant that the God of the Bible made with Abraham some four thousand years ago no longer exists or has been adjusted.

In other words —

God has changed His mind concerning His promises to Abraham.

“FOR I AM THE LORD, I DO NOT CHANGE;
THEREFORE YOU ARE NOT CONSUMED, O
SONS OF JACOB...” MALACHI 3:6

Replacement Theology

Middle Ages: Replacement Theology

- During this time the real foundation of Anti-Semitism was laid.
- Middle Age Christians held the belief that the Jews had “failed their mission” given by God to spread His Word. Some believed that Jesus had been sent to “straighten things out” and that the Christians were the new Chosen People.
- They blamed the Jews for the death of Jesus, because even though the Romans had killed him, the Jews wanted him to die.

- ▶ There is not one passage in the Bible that supports this thesis.
- ▶ As a teaching, it has deep roots in the more historical and traditional churches - but is being embraced by the “new churches” of our day in the form of ‘Fulfillment Theology’ and the more popular ‘Kingdom Now’ teaching.

Replacement Theology

- ▶ Many scriptures affirm that the Abrahamic Covenant and its promises, including that of land to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, is an everlasting covenant (Gen. 17:7-8, Ps. 105:7-11).
- ▶ Even the New Testament affirms the efficacy of the Abrahamic Covenant as it constitutes the reason why God sent John the Baptist as a herald of Christ in Luke 1:71-74: “...that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us, to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant, the oath which He swore to our father Abraham;...”
- ▶ And this covenant constitutes the grounds upon which God’s gift of Messiah is made to the world (Luke 1:54-56): “He has helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy, as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever.”

The manner in which the Covenant was “cut” with Abraham proves beyond dispute that it was unconditional as to the seeds but only conditional upon Abraham’s agreement and obedience to it; which he was (Gen. 22:15-19).

The eternal Abrahamic Covenant

The Abrahamic Covenant, as it is outlined in Gen. 12:1-3; 15:7-21; 17:7-8; 22:15-19, has a number of important clauses:

- ▶ 1. It sets aside Abraham and his descendants as the vehicle of world redemption.
- ▶ 2. It affirms an everlasting possession of the land of Canaan to the “seeds” (descendants) of Abraham.
- ▶ 3. It holds a promise of global salvation from a “seed” (Messiah) who will arise at a point in time from the descendants of Abraham.
- ▶ 4. It gives a promise of blessing to those who bless Abraham’s seeds and a promise of cursing to those who curse them.

The writer of Hebrews Ch. 6 holds up to his readers God's faithfulness to this Covenant as proof that He will be faithful to them in terms of His New Covenant

¹³ For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater to swear by, he swore by himself:

¹⁴ I will indeed bless you, and I will greatly multiply you.^[a] ¹⁵ And so, after waiting patiently, Abraham obtained the promise.

¹⁶ For people swear by something greater than themselves, and for them a confirming oath ends every dispute.

¹⁷ Because God wanted to show his unchangeable purpose even more clearly to the heirs of the promise, he guaranteed it with an oath,

¹⁸ so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us.

¹⁹ We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain.

²⁰ Jesus has entered there on our behalf as a forerunner, because he has become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizadek. (CSB)

If the Abrahamic Covenant has been nullified or adjusted by the coming of Jesus
- then the letter written to the Hebrews some thirty years later (written well after the nation's rejection of Jesus) - and the passage we just read - is false!

God means just what He says and
He will do all that He has promised.

Hudson Taylor

quote fancy

Paul, and the writer of the book of Hebrews, affirm that the Abrahamic Covenant was properly sworn to, sealed and “notarized” by God Himself and that, as such, cannot be adjusted or annulled in any way.

A contract you can count on...

- ▶ Paul writes that fallen men draw up contracts and hold them true - so how much more God who is perfect and altogether trustworthy!
- ▶ In Galations 3 then, Paul points to the fact that the Covenant promises, amongst other things, that salvation will - come to the world through a 'seed' or person: 19 What purpose then does the law serve? It was added because of transgressions, till the Seed should come...
- ▶ If this is true, then salvation cannot be obtained through the law that was given some fourteen hundred years earlier. The Law then must have some purpose other than a saving one. Quite right says Paul - "It is our teacher to bring us to Christ." (Gal.3:24)

He does not lie..

- ▶ So, the Abrahamic Covenant always made an eternal promise of land to Abraham's descendants (Gen. 17:8) and a promise of Messiah to the same descendants (Gen. 22:16-18).
- ▶ God has fully honored His promises in this respect and has not changed His mind.

GOD IS NOT A MAN,
SO HE DOES NOT LIE.
HE IS NOT HUMAN,
SO HE DOES NOT CHANGE HIS MIND.
HAS HE EVER SPOKEN
AND FAILED TO ACT?
HAS HE EVER PROMISED
AND NOT CARRIED IT THROUGH?

NUMBERS 23:19

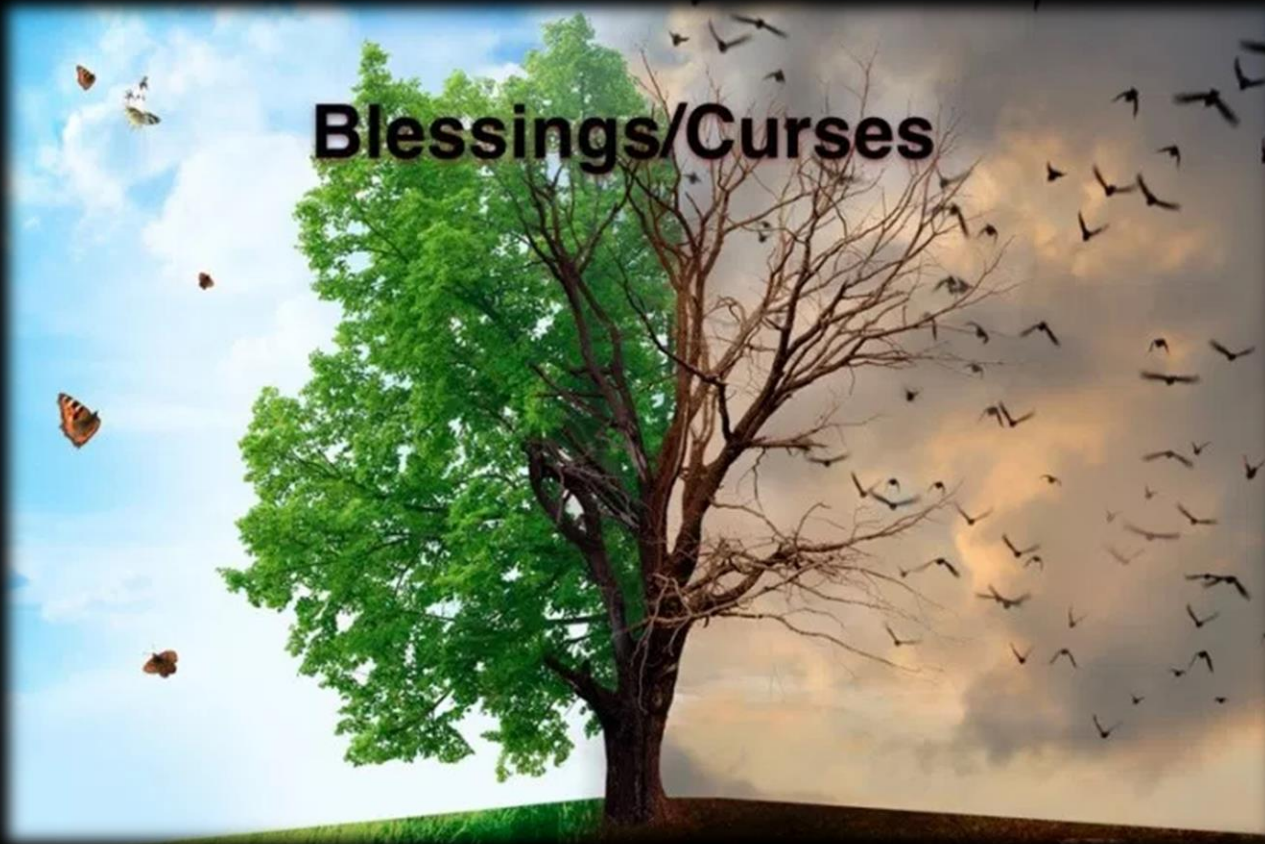

The evil of Replacement Theology

The Evil of Replacement Theology

- ▶ The evil of Replacement Theology and its “cousins” is that it disinvests the Jewish people of a destiny in the land of Israel and thus accuses God of lying by violating a contract which He Himself swore to.

The evil of Replacement Theology

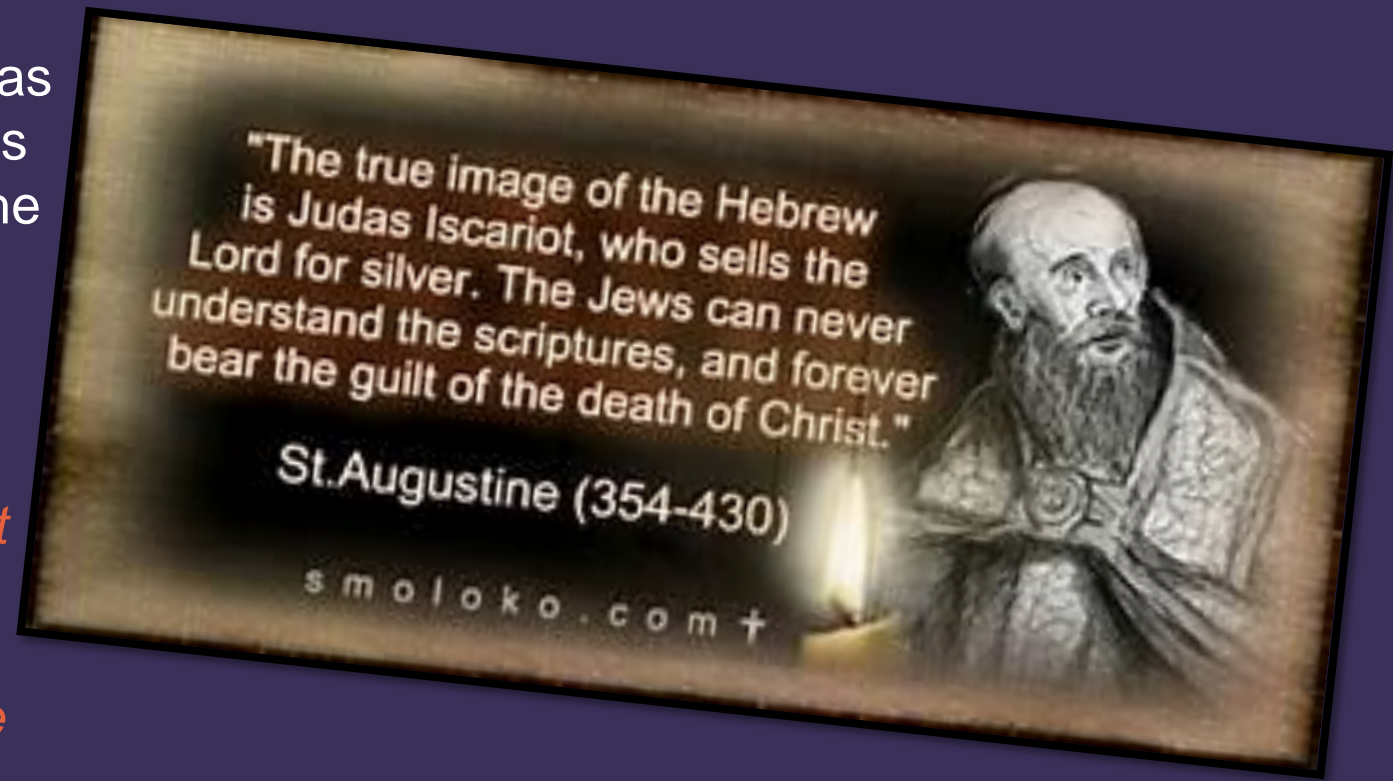

- ▶ They falsely assert that the land part of this Covenant has been removed - thus making Israel's modern day restoration as a nation a mere coincidence.
- ▶ Consequently, any promise referring to the land of Israel can now be transferred to the Church and thus allegorized, making the Church the inheritor of all the promises made to the Jews.
- ▶ (The Church is altogether happy to take the promises and blessings, but doesn't claim the curses and tribulations)

The evil of Replacement Theology

Historically, the Church has not only propagated this error but, coupled with it, has despised the Jews for not believing in Jesus which has in turn encouraged a hatred of the Jews that has birthed anti-Semitism. For instance Martin Luther, who espoused Replacement Theology, wrote in 1543:

"The Jews are a base, whoring people, that is, no people of God, and their boast of lineage, circumcision, and law must be accounted as filthy. The Jews are full of the devils' feces...which they wallow in like swine. Their synagogue is an incorrigible whore and evil slut."

The evil of Replacement Theology

- No wonder this culminated finally with the Holocaust and the anti-Israelism that we witness everywhere today. The fruit of replacement theology is evil and yet it continues to thrive in certain Christian traditions.
- We fully affirm that salvation for all peoples, be they Jew or Gentile, and is only to be obtained by exercising faith in Jesus' finished work on the cross (Rom. 1:16),
- but we affirm that Replacement Theology is a dark spiritual stronghold, that has birthed nothing but "bad fruit", that will only come down by prayer, proper teaching and the written word.

The 'credibility' of Replacement Theology

It is important to note that Replacement Theology may sound credible because it

- 1. Asserts salvation in Christ Jesus alone,
- 2. Proves that scriptures referring exclusively to Israel in the Old Testament are indeed transferred to the Church in the New Testament (1 Pet. 2:9 – “...you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, His own special people, that you may proclaim Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;” also 2 Cor. 6:16-18; Ezek. 37:26; Isa.52:11; 2 Sam. 7:14), and
- 3. Can demonstrate from scripture that the Church is the ‘Israel of God’ (Gal.6:16 – “And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.”).

Refuting The 'credibility' of Replacement Theology

- As to the first point (Jesus is the only way) we affirm that salvation for all people is to be had in Christ Jesus alone. "He is the way, the truth and the life and no one comes to the Father but by Him" (John 14:6). His coming was always promised in the Abrahamic Covenant; He is the "seed" who, like Isaac, was laid on wood to die for the sins of the world.
- But, as to points 2 and 3, we recognize that the Church has joined, or been grafted into, Israel's spiritual tree (Rom. 11:17-26) and is thus the "Israel of God" (Gal. 6:16) but not exclusively or in a replacement manner but in the way that Israel's unbelief made a way for Gentiles to enlarge the existing spiritual tree of Israel.
- The Church joins a community of faith that existed before (Eph. 3:6, Jn. 10:16). The Church then has not replaced anything and least of all the choice that God made of Israel as the vehicle of world redemption. She remains God's birthing people (Rev. 12:1-2).

The Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph. 3:6, CSB)

"But I have other sheep that are not from this sheep pen; I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. Then there will be one flock, one shepherd." (Jn. 10:16 CSB)

Grafted in...

- So then, the promises to the Jewish people in the Abrahamic Covenant remain intact and will be fully honored (Jer.23:37-42; 31:35-37; Amos 9:13-15).
- This is already happening in Israel's modern day restoration. God has not abolished these because of Israel's unbelief (Rom. 3:3-4).
- However do not assert that we are grafted into the nation of Israel - You are not grafted into the IDF or the Orthodox Jews of the Mea Shearim or the State of Israel- but into Israel's spiritual tree that is made up of all those who believe in, love and serve Jesus. (Rom.11:13-23).
- Our support of Israel is solely based upon the faithfulness of God to the Abrahamic Covenant.

Restoration

Rev. Malcolm Hedding,

Jerusalem, <http://us.icej.org>

- Through a process of physical and spiritual restoration in the land of Canaan - Israel will recognize and accept Jesus' Messianic credentials and thereby birth real peace for the whole world by His coming (Ezek. 36:24-28, Zech. 12:10).
- “The things which make for Peace” only come to the world through a saved Jewish Jerusalem and coming of Messiah! (Isa. 2:1-5; Luke 19:41-42) For this reason there is an intense battle raging over Israel's restoration and return to Jerusalem. It will only intensify!

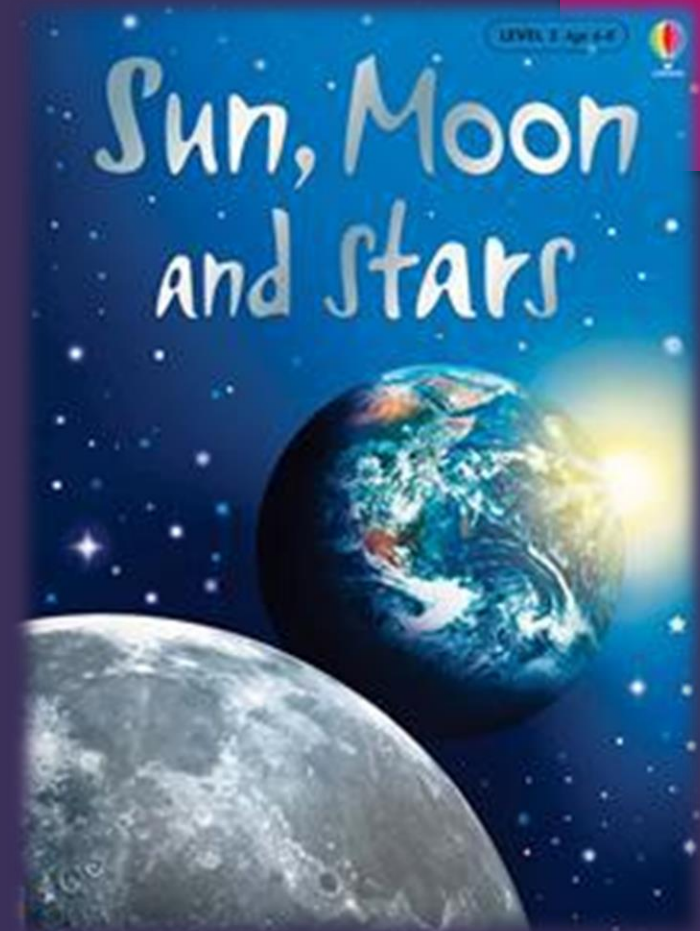

The Watchmen on Replacement Theology:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=usZDdx2QCvw>

Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

Jeremiah 31:35-36 KJV

So when do we think the sun and moon and stars will cease to exist? When they do, we can consider Replacement Theology.

Until then, it remains a LIE.

The BDS Movement: What Does BDS stand for??

BDS Movement

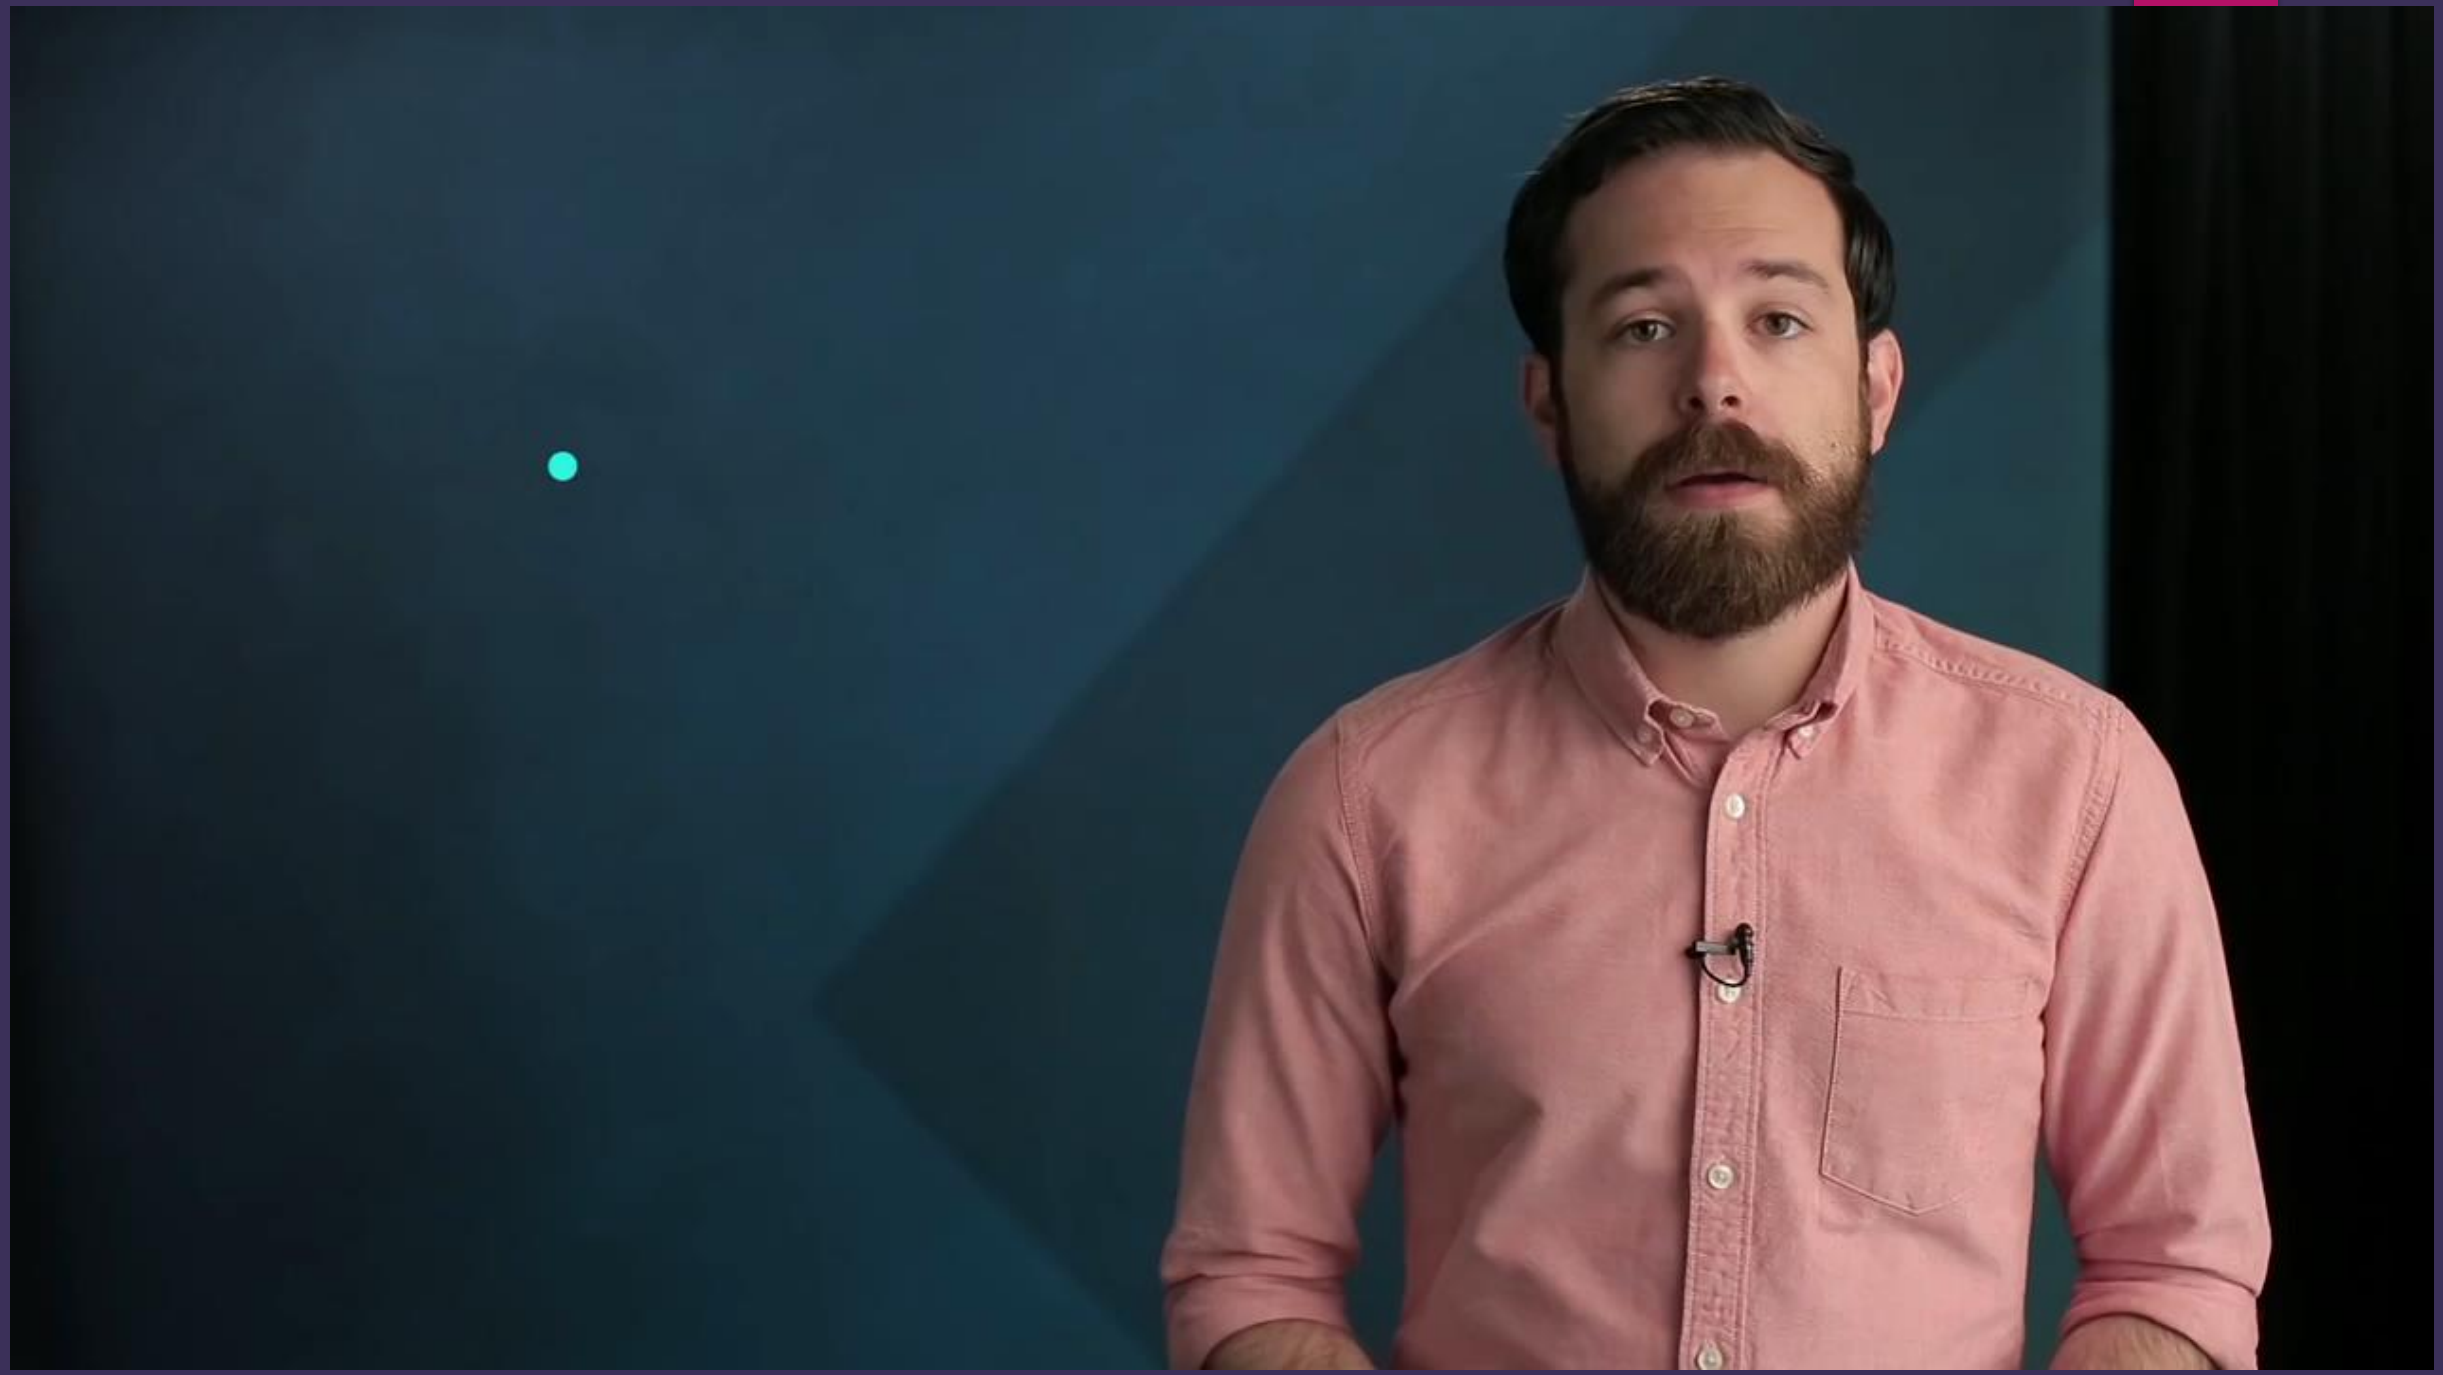

BDS movement is the organized, anti-Israel agenda that is most widely spreading through its gain of media exposure and supporters primarily in North America and Europe.

‘Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions’ - beginnings

- The “Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions” Movement officially claims that the movement is created as a “global movement for a campaign of Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) against Israel until it complies with international law and Palestinian rights”.
- It was initiated by Palestinian civil society in 2005, and is coordinated by the Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC), established in 2007.
- The movement says “BDS is a strategy that allows people of conscience to play an effective role in the Palestinian struggle for justice.”

'Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions' - beginnings

- The beginnings of BDS actually started in 2001 during what's called the "Durban strategy" -
- This was the 'UN Conference Against Racism' held in Durban, South Africa,
- but as history tells us, hatred towards the State of Israel existed far before this.

Omar Barghouti – co-founder

As co-founder of the Palestinian Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (PACBI) Omar Barghouti stated in 2004,

"The current phase has all the emblematic properties of what may be considered the final chapter of the Zionist project. We are witnessing the rapid demise of Zionism, and nothing can be done to save it, for Zionism is intent on killing itself. I, for one, support euthanasia."

THE TIMES OF ISRAEL April 22, 2016

The BDS movement refers to Israel's creation and presence in Palestinian territories as "colonization, apartheid and occupation" constantly referring and comparing Jewish immigration and the creation of the State of Israel as to that of European colonization.

(<http://beholdisrael.org/news-israel/articles/what-bds-movement>)

BDS Claims International law violations

BDS claims three international law violations as its main agenda for the movement. The movement officially names those three objectives and violations as:

- ▶ 1. Ending its occupation and colonization of all Arab lands occupied in June 1967 and dismantling the Wall;
- ▶ 2. Recognizing the fundamental rights of the Arab-Palestinian citizens of Israel to full equality.
- ▶ 3. Respecting, protecting and promoting the rights of Palestinian refugees to return to their homes and properties as stipulated in UN Resolution 194.

What do they want?

- ▶ The movement advocates for a Palestinian “Law of Return”, calling for Palestinian refugees the same right as Jews to immigrate to Israel.
- ▶ The movement also sees the State of Israel as an apartheid state and any and all Israelis living in the West Bank as settlers and occupiers.
- ▶ The movement’s main economic strategies have been to advocate for boycotting or labeling of Israeli products from the West Bank, e.g. cases of goods in Europe labeled or boycotted as “from occupied territories of Palestine”.
- ▶ The movement is focused on the boycott of Israeli goods, academia, sports and culture.

What do they want?

- ▶ It claims that Israel is an apartheid state and that “economic pressure and the power of public opinion that is generated by a wide-scale international boycott is immense”
- ▶ - citing F.W. de Klerk who wrote that “the boycott, disinvestment and sanctions campaign against apartheid South Africa led to a 1.5% decline in national economic growth.”

Israeli Occupation Forces

Additionally, it sees the IDF not as a defensive army, but an army used to occupy and maintain “Israeli control” of the region.

What about the church??

US churches including the Presbyterian Church USA, the United Church of Christ and the United Methodist Church (UMC) and several Quaker bodies have voted to divest from Israeli and international companies targeted by the BDS movement.

Yearly 'Christian' conferences are held in Bethlehem to promote anti-Israel, pro-Palestinian rhetoric.

Churches boycott Hewlett-Packard in support of Palestinian rights

Dozens of churches around the U.S. have now signed a pledge to become HP-Free after calls from Palestinian Christians to boycott

Hewlett-Packard profits from selling information technology to the Israeli military and government that is then used to support violations of Palestinian human rights. HP biometric data technology is used to racially profile Palestinians at checkpoints in the West Bank. HP also provides servers and maintains IT systems for the Israeli military and its prisons as well as for illegal Israeli settlements in the West Bank. The HP-Free Church campaign calls on churches to refrain from buying HP printers, computers, inks, and other products until the company and all of its branches end contracts with Israel's military and cease operations in the occupied West Bank.

Since July, 2017 — several dozen churches around the United States, representing many different denominations, have signed pledges to boycott Hewlett-Packard (HP), joining an international boycott movement meant to pressure the tech company into ending its complicity in Israel's human rights abuses against Palestinians.

The individual pledges are part of a larger campaign organized by Friends of Sabeel North America (FOSNA), an ecumenical organization led by Palestinian Christians seeking justice and peace in Palestine. In pledging to boycott HP, the churches have joined the rapidly growing international Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement against Israel. Christian denominations in the United States have been a big part of this effort. To date, the United Church of Christ, Unitarian Universalists, Presbyterian Church, Alliance of Baptists, Quaker Friends Fiduciary, and, most recently, Mennonite Church USA, have all voted to divest from HP due to its human rights violations against Palestinians, while three regional Methodist conferences passed resolutions supporting the boycott of HP products.

The evils of the BDS movement

July 1, 2015 - The United Church of Christ announced its endorsement of the BDS movement against Israeli products produced in Judea and Samaria (the West Bank) though it failed to secure the two-thirds majority vote needed to label Israeli policies "apartheid."

WALL STREET JOURNAL – Dec 13, 2019

Trump Issued an Executive Order that Declares the Boycott Movement Against Israel Is Based, Not on Support for the Rights of Palestinians, But on Anti-Semitism

President Trump signed an executive order to make Jews on college campuses a “protected class” by expanding the legal classification of Jews to include them as having an Israeli national identity. The law states that the Education Department can take such action against any program that discriminates “on the ground of race, color or national origin”. This will allow the Education Department to pull funding from colleges that allow political movements that focus on the policies of the government of Israel. The order is intended to put a stop to the Boycott, Divest and Sanction Israel movement that is popular on college campuses.

In response to the pro-Israel lobby in America, 27 states have passed laws attempting to curb the BDS movement.

If my people...

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven,
and I will forgive their sin
and will heal their land."

2 Thessalonians 2:9-10

Who disturbs the sea,

Then the seed of Israel shall also cease
From being a nation before Me forever."
