Love is patient, love is kind.
It does not envy, it does not boast,
it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking,
it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.

A NOTE FROM THE MINISTER OF MUSIC AND ADMINISTRATION...

New Beginnings, Blessings, and, Hope Promised

The Bender/Konvalin households have experienced once again new life in our midst. Baby Isaac was born January 22. He is beautiful. He is another blessing from God's hand; a gift beyond words and understanding. The familiar Gaither hymn says it well: "How sweet to hold a newborn baby, and feel the pride and joy he gives. But greater still, the calm assurance, this child can face uncertain days because He (Jesus) lives." The uncertainty of life was met once again with the certainty of God's plan, which was to see Lauren and baby through the process of child birth, and Thursday afternoon, to bring to us all a live, breathing, moving, cooing baby. This is not an accident or happenstance; this is a God ordained miracle! The blessing to hold this little miracle of human life goes beyond words and understanding. Thank you, God! Thank you church for your prayers through this time.

As we walk through this time of transition at Central Baptist, I pray we can all keep hope alive through our corporate and individual prayer, worship, and Bible study. May we seek and find times of fellowship together. May we see, feel, hear, and otherwise, experience the presence of God through this time as we collectively approach God's Throne of Grace asking Him for His blessings for Central Baptist Church. Our future blessings as a congregation depend on our current obedience to God's will for our church. What is God's will for our church? The Apostle Paul speaks of God's will being our sanctification through living pure and holy lives and being thankful in all circumstances. So, what is God's will for His church? That we are an example of the transforming power of the Holy Spirit as the "Body of Christ" in flesh and blood to the world today. How we live our lives individually (day by day and moment by moment) reflects who we are when we come together collectively.

The reason baby Isaac can face uncertain days ahead is because of our assurance that Jesus lives, but also because Isaac will be part of a community of faith that helps him thrive in Christ Jesus. I invite you to join me in being a part of the community of faith that Isaac and all our other children and youth at Central need us to be; and that is a community of faith that goes out of our way to fulfill our obligations as followers of Christ. "May those who come behind us find us faithful."

SENIOR ADULT NEWS

INQUIRING MINDS? – If you want to know what's coming up in WOO-ville, there are always copies of the OWL Notes on the table in the hall between the Sanctuary and Fellowship Hall. These are updated each month and are available following the WOO meeting.

SENIOR ADULT LUNCHEON

February 9 – Our program will be presented by Paul and Cathy DeRousse.

Before his retirement, Paul served as Minister of Music (and other duties as may be assigned) for 45 years in Oklahoma, Texas, New York, and Louisiana. In addition to serving as a pianist and/or organist at the churches where Paul served, Cathy has taught at Del Mar College in Corpus Christi, Centenary College in Shreveport, and at ETBU here in Marshall. She also has had many arrangements published for piano, organ, choir, and handbells. They have three served as Minister of Music (and other duties as may be assigned) sons living in Colorado Springs, Ft. Worth, and Orlando. They will be sharing music appropriate for Valentine's Day, most of which you've probably never heard in a church. Our menu is potluck (or pot providence, if you'd rather), so bring whatever you enjoy to eat. Please check the sign up list to avoid bringing too much of one item. Whether you're bringing a dish to share or not, please sign up so we will know how many to prepare for. Bring a friend and a dollar (and a dollar for them). You don't have to be an WOO member (Wise Old Owl), all you have to have is the time. We won't assume you're old just because you come to WOO.

JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT –

February 21 –Although this event is not until February 21, you will need to reserve a ticket by February 8. This musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice is based on the familiar Biblical story of Joseph. It will be presented at the Emmett Hook Center at First Methodist in Shreveport and includes members of the Centenary Choir. To reserve your ticket, pick up one of the special envelopes at the information center, insert $20 for each ticket you wish to purchase, please, please fill out the information requested on the envelope and give it to Paul DeRousse. This matinee showing begins at 3:00, but we will leave CBC at 11:30 to eat at a restaurant in Shreveport and enjoy fellowship together. If you can just meet us at the theater if you would rather not dine out ahead of time. If you have questions, please contact Paul at (318) 455-8205.

Pastor Search Committee Being Formed

Please be prayerfully considering seven people who can serve on our pastor search committee and submit these names. We are asking for all church members to submit seven names of people who are eligible to serve on this committee. Who can serve? Active members...which means people who attend worship regularly and actively serve the church in its ministry and mission. We ask that these seven candidates be individuals you believe seek the Lord and abide in Him through regular prayer, Bible study, worship, and fellowship with other believers. These should be people you believe will put the good of Central Baptist Church above their personal preferences in order to work together as a team with the other committee members. Who can not serve? Non-church members. Church staff members and spouses of "ordained church staff members."

What should you do? Please submit seven names in a signed, sealed envelope in a church offering box or bring by or mail to the church office by Monday, February 9, 2026. Unsigned ballots will not be accepted. Ballots and envelopes are available at the Information Center or offering box locations.
