

Living As One

Antioch Tulsa is on mission; hosting God, building the Body, and following Jesus into our neighbors, the city, and the nations of the Earth.

The heart of discipling relationship (belief statements)

Discipler	Disciplee
I believe I have a role in the family, and I believe I am called to the family mission	I believe Jesus has invited me to be a His disciple
I believe I cover and build up disciples	I believe I need others as I follow Jesus
I believe I am called to live generationally	I believe I belong and have a role in the family and the family mission.
I believe in denying myself to follow Jesus

The Hand of Discipling Relationships (how I commit to relating)

Discipler	Disciplee
Defines the meeting space over a set period of time	Is committed to being a disciple of Jesus
Prays for their disciple	Is committed to being honest
Connects weekly in any form with disciple	Is committed to receiving exhortation, correction, feedback, and instruction
Asks the question weekly: "how are you following Jesus this week"	Is committed to living out the relational values
Commits to embodying the relational values with disciple
Commits to being disciplined within the Family

