Clyde's Update

Spring is trying to get here, but these chilly mornings remind us that we are not quite there yet. The rains have been nice, and we are grateful. I'm sure our farmer friends would take more. You just never know how that is going to go. I do like the look of some of the green grass making its way to the surface. It just feels different when we see that. I'm still waiting for fishing reports. I know people are trying that a little, but I think it's slow. I love spring fishing. Tis the season.

We finished our last MidWeek last Wednesday and what a great night we had! It was the largest group of year which was a great way to end. Lots of pizza and lots of good music and fun. We had so many people involved in helping with Midweek. Each year we have a few extra things going on. This year, the men's group that meets really seemed to find traction. John Blok and those fellas in that back room got connected and some very good things are coming out of that group. There were all kinds of classes for the adults and lots of kid things going on at the same time. One of the best parts of that MidWeek celebration night is that it gives people a chance to see the youth and children's ministry in motion. There is much that goes on back in that wing and if you don't walk back there, you may not realize it's there, but when they come in to sing and be a part the evening, you really do get to see who they are and how very good all of that is. I want to thank Janet and Brian Bartscher for taking the lead on the kitchen and those lead chefs for the work they put in organizing their work groups. It is a big task and doesn't go unnoticed by me. We have great meals and that takes work. Thanks to all of you for that. For all the dessert treats and those people that put that together, a big thank you. For all the teachers, sponsors, nursery people, and everyone who shows up to participate, it is a great thing. Well done everyone!

Our "Seek" conference is this coming Saturday. We have certainly been highlighting this for several weeks now. I am very curious how it will all go. I have been wondering just how many will attend. I know the speaker is going to be very good. I really like Aaron, he seems to very down to earth, and he is looking forward to being with us. I know the material is good, as I have read through so much of it. I know the food is going to be good because we do good food around here. I know the singing will be great because you can all sing. I know God will be here because there are two or three that will gather in His name. That sounds like a good combination. The Spirit will move because that happens in that room. Join us!

Sunday is Palm Sunday! It is the day the nation celebrated the coming of the Messiah. They were so excited to see him and run alongside of the colt and shout and sing. Their King had come to them just like the prophets said it would happen. The kingdom of Heaven had arrived indeed. We all know the crowd of excitement will fade in a few short days and soon their hopeful cheers to shift. Their dream seemed to be fading and then they will turn, but for now, on this day, they are excited about the possibilities. They weren't completely wrong you know. We'll talk more on Sunday, have a great week!

LIZ'S UPDATE

ADULT DISCIPLESHIP & WORSHIP

I want to give a massive thank you to so many who helped make Mid-Week one of the best years we've ever had! We served pizza to 300+ people last week! And most nights we served supper to 250+. The entire year was filled with wonderful food, conversation, learning, and spiritual growth. A few people I'd like to thank specifically are Janet Bartscher for all of her organizing and help with the kitchen and kitchen crews, the head chefs and kitchen volunteers who are too numerous to name (although I wish I had a list of every name to share with you), the bakers who made all of the treats and desserts week after week, Doyle and his youth group sponsors, Heather and her elementary volunteers and workers, and finally Clyde Teel, John Thornton, Susan Bierwagen, John Blok, Grace Collins, and Dan Goeller for teaching such wonderful adult classes all year long. I know lives were changed, new friendships were made, and God was glorified during the year. And of course, I want to thank everyone who made Mid-Week a priority in their week. It doesn't mean much if we don't have church people participating in this ministry, and the fact that you come and come consistently is such a blessing. Thank you for joining us every Wednesday!

The Seek Conference is this Saturday! Remember it starts at 9:00am and will go until about 4:00pm. Nursery is provided, Heather will be doing things with kindergarten through 5th grade all day long, and 6th grade – high school students are welcome to join the adults in the sanctuary for the entire experience. Lunch will be provided, so we ask that you pre-register for the event by using the QR codes on the signs, going online to our website, or signing up at the link. This all-day event will include a ton of worship (which I'll be leading along with our worship band), teaching, prayer, fellowship, and time to engage with what we've been learning that day. I think it's going to be a powerful time together. I hope you'll join us!

Next week is Holy Week. We will be having our Maundy Thursday Communion Service on April 17 at 7:00pm. Easter services on Sunday morning will be at our normal times of 8:00, 9:00, and 10:45. I hope you're able to come and celebrate the most amazing, incredible, life-transforming event the world has ever seen: the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ!! What an awesome God we serve!! He is truly worthy of all our praise and worship!!

Have a great week!

HEATHER'S UPDATE KID'S MINISTRY

Hi Everyone!

This week I want to take a moment to encourage you to join us this Saturday at the Seek event. I especially want to invite kids in grades K-5 to come for the Joyful Noise day. I think we've planned a day that kids will really enjoy. Now we just need to get them here! 😊

After singing "Go Be Bacon" on Wednesday night, it made me smile to see that the Parenting Tool reminder for this month is Matthew 5:13-16. Whether you are a parent, grandparent, aunt, friend, or someone who goes to church with kids or sees them in the grocery store, this month's tool reminds us of the power the Holy Spirit shining through a caring adult. Statistically, parents make an enormous impact, but that doesn't mean the rest of us don't have God given opportunities.
