JANUARY 28, 2026

Clyde's Update

It's early Monday morning as I sit down to write this newsletter and it is very cold. I know a little warming is predicted, but it's January and I know these cold days are just a part of winter. We are getting through the month, and we know things can change. We just have to patient. They are having much worse conditions in other places with snow and ice, so I don't feel too bad. Stay warm everyone!

The new year is off to a fast start and usually there is a little time here at the beginning of the year that is a little slower than the holidays in December, but I can't say that this year. I have been busy with things around church. We have a lot of things going on in the lives of many of our folks right now. Be praying for these families as we work through some difficult times with them. It is why we are here and why church families are so important. I really don't mind this kind of work. I always feel like these are the moments we do the best of others and there is something very right about that.

I want to also commend the many of you who volunteer for the many things we ask you to do around the church. There are greeting teams, teachers, sponsors, kitchen helpers, and the nursery. Each of those areas are always looking for folks to help. We will try to keep you all up to speed on what needs we might have in any of those places. We want to be there for people whenever we can and in whatever way we can. I hear ideas all the time about things to try and I want that to continue. Thanks again to all who do the many things for your church family. That's a special gift you bring.

CRU formerly "Campus Crusade For Christ" is hosting an event March 6th at our church which is a fellowship dinner. You will be hearing more about that in the coming weeks. Our good friends the Harmsen's, are a big part of that event. We are going to be encouraging our friends to join them for a great evening of sharing testimonies and great food. Start thinking about being a part of that evening. It's a great way for us to come alongside those campus ministry teams.

MidWeek continues to have excellent numbers even with the colder temps. We are seeing such a great group each and every week. I have heard such great compliments on the classes we are doing this year and with that I say thanks to all of those who are teaching. I love the energy in the place. I want to build on that energy and find ways to even do it better. Discipleship is about connecting and digging into the word together. That we are doing. Great job Community!

This coming Sunday. Our "Seek" series turns to the subject of seeking Christ as Lord. It is about making Jesus the one I not only seek for my salvation, but the one I seek to guide and direct my steps. I go to him first for advice. I trust him with my life. It is a surrendering my own will to his. This can be a tall challenge in a culture of individualism and the idea of my life as my own to live out how I choose live it. Jesus as Lord. We'll talk more on Sunday. Have a great week!

"I ask only one thing from the Lord. This is what I want: Let me live in the Lord's house all my life. Let me see the Lord's beauty and look with my own eyes at his Temple." Ps.27.4
What's one thing you ask of God? Why?
