CLYDE'S ARTICLE

MARCH 20, 2024

March is now past the midpoint and yes, it is still March, which means you never know what you might get. We even had a little snow in the air on Sunday. I have a feeling we might not be done with all of that yet. I just know how March can be. It is a very unpredictable month of the year. So far, it really hasn't been all that bad other than all the wind. I think the wind is just annoying. I have a feeling many of you feel that way as well. We could use a little rain. It might be time for the song "Flood Gate". I'll talk to Liz about that. In the meantime, I hope everyone is having a great month.

This coming Sunday is Palm Sunday. I can't believe we are here, but then again, I knew this would all go so quickly. Palm Sunday will bring with it all the traditions of the Jewish parade back when Jesus was here as well as all the tradition we have for those of us who grew up in the church. Palm branches and all! We are getting to end of this season. That means Easter is only a few days away. Can you believe that?

We are doing our last MidWeek of the year this week with our annual praise and pizza night. It has been a good year, and it has gone very quickly. I want to again thank everyone who makes that evening work because it takes a lot of hands to put that all together. It remains one of the nicest ways to meet new people and to get connected to this place. If you sit around a table and eat together or get involved in one of the classes...it will make a difference in knowing each other. I will miss it when it is done. Although, as quickly as the time seems to go, it will be fall before you know it. Sorry, I probably didn't need to say that last part.

I thought I would offer a quick word about some of our new denomination's business going on this spring. We continue to work through several things for this group, much of it involves getting things in order in our regional hub. We know we have gathered a couple of new churches into our hub from Iowa. I don't think it's all official yet, so I will hold off on sharing those names for the moment. We have also been working out the details of how we will credential our pastor candidates. We must have a process by which all of that can happen. Obviously, we have other churches we are learning from in this process, but still it all needs to happen with a degree of professionalism and certainly good sound theology. There is a gathering of all the church leaders in April and Grant Boljtes and I will be attending that. I am interested in getting to know some of the other friends in this group as well as take in some of the activities for learning that week. It all seems to be going very well, and as a group, there is still a strong sense of local control and not to get too top heavy in our organizational structure. The other thing that always impresses me about this group is their focus of ministry and the strong central of message of Christ first and the working of the Holy Spirit. We'll keep you informed as the time moves along.

Sunday is Palm Sunday! I think we know all about that! This year, we will look at that from the point of view of the many groups we have been sharing about these past few Sundays. Jesus was coming into the city. Had their Messiah arrived? Was this the one they had been praying for and waiting for all these many years? What was going to happen next? We'll talk more on Sunday. Have a great week!

DOYLES'S UPDATE

MIDDLE SCHOOL & HIGH SCHOOL

Midweek is finishing up with tonight's pizza and praise night. While it is hard to imagine we are already at this point in the year, it does bring about a few things that will be going on for students still before the end of the school year. To start, our current 8th grade students are invited to join the high school group the first Wednesday in April (the 3rd) to be introduced to the high school group before officially joining the group this summer. Since the high school group will have the entire church while we keep meeting in April, this is a great chance for the soon to be freshman to get a feel for what that will be like. I will be sending an email out to parents as well so if you have an 8th grade student you can be looking for that.

To continue on that note, our high school group will continue to meet for the month of April, and this year we will be talking about social media throughout the month. This was a topic that students brought up in February and so we are going to get into all of that together. Our time does change a little as well as we will do a meal from 6:00-7:00 and then have our large group session from 7:00-8:00. Student are welcome to hang out after as they spend time together in conversation and games.

Finally, we do have an event for both middle and high school students on Sunday, May 5th. We are joining together with the churches we did the winter retreat with for a night of worship. We will have a meal from 6:00-7:00 then have worship starting at 7:00. Again, this is for both middle and high school students and the current plan is to meet at First E Free here in Sioux Falls. As we get closer to that I will be sending out the specific details and hopefully a playlist of songs they can expect to hear so they can be listening prior to the night.

That's it for this week. If you have any questions about the youth ministry here at Community, feel free to reach out anytime.

LIZ'S UPDATE

ADULT DISCIPLESHIP & WORSHIP

WD40
GROUP

APRIL 1ST
7-8PM

This week, we celebrate our final night of Mid-Week until next fall. It takes SO many people to make that ministry run smoothly. I'd like to thank a few people specially for all the work they put in this year.

Thanks to Janet Bartscher for organizing and scheduling all the kitchen work crews. She also makes sure the hotdog supply doesn't run out every week! Thanks, Janet for keeping an eye on all those moving parts for the meals.

I'd like to thank all of our kitchen head chefs and work crews. It's too many people to name, but if you made BBQs, Italian food, Salads, Tacos, Shepherds Pie, Pulled Pork Sandwiches, or Soup, please know you have our deepest gratitude for filling our bellies every Wednesday night. We thank you for all your hard work of setting up, cooking, and cleaning up every week!

Special thanks to everyone who taught adult classes this year. I feel like it was one of our best years yet! At its peak, over 170 adults were attending classes every week. Now that is something to celebrate! Thank you to our teachers: Pastor Clyde, Pastor John, Susan Bierwagen, Grace Collins, and Kyle Wigg.

I know there were many people who helped in the youth areas as well as in the nursery. Thank you to all of you who helped teach and care for the children on Wednesday nights. You make an immense difference in the lives of those children!

And of course, I can't forget to thank everyone who just CAME! Thank you for committing to our classes and to helping with meals. Friends, a ministry cannot be successful unless people come and keep coming. The fact that our numbers stayed consistent all year was such a blessing. Thank you for participating in all we had to offer!

And as I mentioned last week, this Wednesday, March 20, will be our last night of Mid-Week. Everyone is welcome to join us for pizza at 5:30 and then praise and worship from 6:30-7:30pm. It's a wonderful way to acknowledge everyone who made this ministry possible and to join in worship to God, by whose hand all of this good has come. We do it for God, with God, and by God's grace. To Him be all the glory!

Lastly this week, I want to remind the women that our next WD40 meeting is coming up on April 1. This is technically Easter Monday. I want to note that here because I know it will be here before we know it, and it comes right on the heels of that holiday. We'll meet from 7-8pm in the fellowship hall, and we'll only meet one more time before we break for summer.

Have a good week, friends!
