Clyde's Update

November is proving to be a pretty nice month thus far. We are getting a little rain at times and the days are just very fall like. I for one, really enjoy that. I am out in the west part of the state doing a little hunting. I'll be back for MidWeek, but I am so grateful for the time away to get this done. It does my heart good to be out in that place once again. Thanks to the Hertz family for all of that. I am very grateful for them. Enjoy these days folks because at this time of the year, you never know what might happen. Just sayin'.

Thanks to Pastor John and Liz for filling in for me on Sunday. We have been trying to do more of that by having our own folks do that for us rather than getting an outside voice to speak for us. It is a good way for you all to get to hear them from the front and also get to know them a little better.

Last week's MidWeek hit another high for the year. This continues to be so exciting to see. There are just people everywhere. Lots of little kids, and I do mean lots. There is such a great buzz in the air, and I am so thrilled with the folks who are doing the kitchen work. Those teams are doing a fantastic job. They set a great tone for the evening with such a great spirit as they serve the friends who come by. There is some very good church going on here on Wednesday evenings. Go God Go!

We were able to get a phase of the parking lot done last week due to a very nice gift from a family in church. That was very special. I am so thankful for the generous hearts in this place. We are truly blessed in that area. That also means, as I just mentioned in the above paragraph, all those volunteers who do nursery, teach, kitchen help, sound, tech, choirs, and the many things that happen that no one sees. It is wonderful to see.

I want to put in a plug this week for our library. There are so many people who take advantage of that place and rightly so. They keep that place humming. That team of workers in there is always on the ball with keeping items out that fit the themes of the sermons. If you are a reader and looking for some good books, check out that place. They are doing an amazing job.

We hosted the ARC's district meeting this past weekend. It was a great gathering of our friends on Friday evening and Saturday morning. Again, I say, we are all on the same team here, and these are our friends. It was nice to see some familiar faces and to get a chance to visit with them. Our facility works so well for things like that. They were most grateful for our hospitality. That's who we are Community!

My message this week is still a continuation of that Damascus Road experience that Saul/Paul had. There is a name change coming for him, but even more than that, it is those Christians who must trust that God has indeed made this change within this man's heart. You really must admire their faith in such a matter. Saul was told to go to Damascus...he did. He was brought into this budding community there and then...off he goes. We'll talk more on Sunday. Have a great week!

The morning book club will meet Wednesday, Nov 20, at the Bagel Boy on Minnesota Ave and 33rd St. We will be discussing The Last Thing He Told Me by Dave.

**Book Clubs will not meet in Decemeber.

We are drawing near to the midway point of November and there are a few things coming up for the youth ministry here at Community!

This Sunday there are a few things going on. First, the high school students and parents will have a meeting for this summer's mission trip during the Sunday School time (10:10-10:40). We will be partnering with an organization called Youth Works and the trip will be for all high school students and their parents. Sunday we will be going through what to expect, dates, registration, cost and a time for any questions that come up. Students and parents, if you are interested in a mission trip this upcoming summer, join me on Sunday morning!

Then, Sunday evening at 5:00 we are going to be having our middle school event. I will be providing supper and we will be going on a mystery adventure for students. Parents, I emailed you those details on Monday. If you did not receive my email, please let me know so I can get that information to you. I am asking for an RSVP by Friday this so I can make sure to have enough transportation for everyone.

Finally, the following weekend, November 22nd-24th, is our high school retreat. This year we are heading to Lost Timber Bible Camp in Chandler, MN for a weekend away. Our retreats are a great chance for students to step away from their typical weekends and rest, connect with God and spend time with one another as a youth group. Registration forms are due next Wednesday. Students can get a form here at church, or I also emailed those out to parents. Again, if you did not receive that email please let me know.

That's it for this week. If you have any questions about the youth ministry here at Community, feel free to reach out anytime.

HEATHER'S UPDATE KID'S MINISTRY

Hi Everyone!

My husband and I took a trip to Nashville as chaperones for our daughter Addi's band trip. We had a wonderful experience. Thank you to those who took care of everything here at church while I was gone.

Now, we all get to enjoy all that the last two months of 2024 have in store. Here at church, that means more Sunday School and Midweek. In addition to our regular lessons, we're preparing for the Christmas program. The Nursery is also full of fun adventures.

All kids who are participating in the program this year have songs and group speaking parts to practice at home.

For kids who are doing drumming or dance, please try to be at Midweek for practice time. If you need more information, visit Communityrc.org/Christmas, or ask me.

See you soon!

COMMUNITY
KIDS
NOW HIRING!

JOIN OUR TEAM
WEDNESDAY EVENINGS
TO HELP WITH THE K-5 KIDS
WORK 5:45PM-7:45PM

Our current staffing team is doing great and everyone is learning and having fun, but with more kids this year, we need more help.

Community hires paid staff for this position to allow parents to attend classes, rather than volunteering in the Kids Wing. It is good for kids to see their parents committed to learning and growing in their relationship with Jesus!

Make a difference and make some cash.
Teach fun, engaging, hands on Bible lessons to K-5 kids at church.

LIZ'S UPDATE ADULT DISCIPLESHIP & WORSHIP

Thanks to everyone who helped to make Sunday morning a great day of worship! 😊 Thanks to Arlan Burggraaf for opening the building, Pastor John for preaching at 8:00, and Doyle for opening the 9:00 and 10:45 services and praying. And I want to say thank you to everyone who lifted me up in prayer for the sermons, and for the many kind and encouraging words you shared later on. I felt those prayers! And although everything went well, I'll be very glad to have things back to normal this Sunday!

Once again, I want to share with you about how well the choir is doing in our rehearsals! I ordered almost all new music this year, and the choir has done a fantastic job working on those songs and learning some very difficult pieces. We still have a lot of work to do, but I'm really looking forward to our performances on December 15. We will also have 2 special instrumental guests that Sunday. I think it's going to be a blessed day!

As I've said before, choir Sunday is a great day to invite a friend to church. We sing lots of Christmas carols that day and it's a very festive and celebratory Sunday. Remember, we do those concerts at both the 9:00 and 10:45 services on December 15. So, if there's a friend you've been wanting to invite, I encourage you to consider that as an easy invitation Sunday.

The WD40 group met last week, and we decided to have our Christmas party on the first Monday of December, which is December 2. We will meet from 7:00-8:00pm in the fellowship hall. This group is open to women of all ages. If you want, you are welcome to bring a plate of goodies to share that evening. We will also be doing a small gift exchange. We are asking that the gifts be "consumable," meaning they can be used up. Bring the gift wrapped for the exchange and be as creative as you want with what you give! Consumables include things like toilet paper, soap, lotion, dinner napkins, hairspray, apples, candy, etc. Just anything that can be used up! We'll do a fun little game for the gift exchange and spend time celebrating the birth of Jesus. As we did last year, we are also collecting donations for the St. Francis House. Some of the things they are desperately in need of are shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste (but not toothbrushes), men's and women's deodorant, Tampax, and hairbrushes. Women, if you want to bring any of these items to our Christmas party, Mary Burggraaf will make sure they are delivered to St. Francis House. I love that we are able to do this as part of our WD40 Christmas party. Again, all women are welcome!

Have a good week, friends!
