CLYDE'S UPDATE

I have been hearing of a weather change coming our way. Maybe a little snow in the Black Hills. We knew it was coming at some point. We have certainly been loving this amazing fall thus far. I know the farmers are getting lots of harvest done and I am hearing different reports on yields depending on where the rains fell. It is that season. Hunting season is not far off, and I am hoping the weather is nice for that. I got injured last year, if you remember, and didn't really get to finish up my time like I would have liked so, I really want to get back out there again. I hope you have all been enjoying all this colorful season. It won't last forever, but right now it is wonderful.

We have been working our way through the fall season activities. Sunday School, MidWeek, Choir and all the other things. We are noticing smaller groups, but we know what that is all about. People being cautious. I have believed and continue to believe that we just need to get a bit further down this "virus" road. We can do it together, folks. We will keep everyone up to speed and always communicate how things are going. I am so grateful for all our volunteers who are doing so much to keep all these things going. Great job!

This is October, so our denomination is finally meeting after nearly 2 years of meetings being cancelled from COVID related things. I am watching that very closely. Things are divisive there for sure and there are plans being offered to get out of that rut. It will be most interesting to see how all of this will finally unfold. There have been so many opinions on how that might go. Now, we are all going to see. That will be helpful. We will watch, we will evaluate, and we will plan. God is bigger than this. I am trusting first in His kingdom and from there, we will do our next things. Pray it up folks. Go God Go!

My first MidWeek class starts this week. I am excited about spending some time with folks and growing our faith by doing new book study. It is a class that I hope to make so that if you can't be there for all the classes, it would still work. I can do that. We will be ordering books this week, once I know how many we need. It's good stuff. Join us!

My sermon this coming Sunday is now going to look at the connection we have to our Savior. I think it might be more correct to say the connection he has to us. In John's 2nd letter, John points out that we love because Jesus loved us first. It was Jesus who chose the disciples and when Jesus says come and follow, he has made a decision that is motivated by his unfailing love toward us. That love is not empty! God's love has power! It has a kind of heart infiltrating purpose that brings new life to us. The kingdom of God is a place where that love is manifested...eternally. The world can offer no such gift like that. We will talk more on Sunday. Have a great week!

LIZ'S UPDATE

ADULT DISCIPLESHIP & WORSHIP

We had a wonderful first night of Mid-Week last week! We served just under 200 people for dinner, and we had a large number of adults stick around to hear about the adult classes we will be offering this year. For those of you who were unable to attend, here are the details for those adult Mid-Week classes.

Pastor Clyde will be doing a book study on the book, "A Deeper Journey" by Robert Mulholland. This study will focus on God's transforming work in us. It's a fairly easy read, but the content is profound. His class will meet in the chapel area from 6:30-7:30pm on Wednesday nights. If you want to order the book, I know he will be working on gathering a list of people so the books can all be ordered together. However, you do not need the book to participate in the class.

Pastor John will be doing his study from an online source called "The Wired Word." The first topic will be on the challenges of living with chronic pain while following Christ. His class will meet in the office area around the double tables from 6:30-7:30pm on Wednesday nights.

And I will be doing a study called "A Word or The Word?" Each night, we'll compare Scripture with other words that are often incorrectly attributed to Scripture. Our weeks will include topics like "Hymn Lyric or Bible Verses," "Wise Sayings or Scriptures," "Famous Songs or Bible Verses," and several others, and we will discuss the implications of attributing things to the Bible that aren't in the Bible and vice versa. And along similar lines, a couple of the nights will be about Scripture only and will include strange things you never knew were in the Bible and cherry-picked verses or whole sections of scripture. I think we'll have a lot of fun while learning about what the Bible actually says. My class will meet in the Sanctuary (the big room) this year in order to clear out the fellowship hall after the meal, and to give everyone just a bit more space to spread out if they so choose.

If you have any questions about Mid-Week, please let me know!

Don't forget that we have decided to bump the starting date of choir back just a few weeks to October 24. If you missed the meeting but you want to sing, PLEASE contact me so I can add you to our list of singers. I have had several people contact me, so we do have enough to form a choir, but we will always take more! ☺ Remember, our choir rehearsals will run from 4:00-5:30pm (with childcare provided), and the concerts will be December 5 at both the 9:00 and 10:45 services. If you are planning to sing, please let me know!

Lastly this week, I need to update everyone who was considering The Journey class. Jeannette has done a marvelous job of connecting with people and sharing information about this study, but it's looking like the fall is not the best time to begin this group. In light of that, she is going to bump her starting date to some time after the first of the year. Friends, this study is outstanding.

Please give some prayerful thought to participating in it. I know you will be blessed.

Have a great week and enjoy this gorgeous fall weather!

KID'S MINISTRY

HEATHER'S UPDATE

Hi Everyone!

We had a nice group of kids for Midweek. It is always so fun to be together. Kids are welcome to join us any time. The meal begins at 5:30 with lessons at 6:30. We wrap up by 7:30 (that's when High School Youth Group starts.)

In the last few weeks, I've been thinking about parent/ teacher conferences. Quite a few kids from Community had their conferences recently. It struck me that during conferences, kids receive feedback from their teachers about how they are doing academically and sometimes socially. They may get reminded to talk a little less in class or encouraged to speak their mind a little more often. They may be encouraged to read more or do their homework on time. They might have an opportunity to have their hard work celebrated. Test scores may be reviewed, and assignments shared. They may even be recognized as a kid with great character or as a kid who always goes out of their way to be kind and helpful. Regardless of the content of parent/ teacher conferences, the reality is that even the best teachers (and parents) cannot understand the entirety of a child's gifts, talents, or personality. Only God understands our true identity. God is shaping us, helping us grow, and He knows us perfectly and entirely. He sees our children not as musical, athletic, smart, creative, nice, funny, struggling, excelling, etc. but instead as HIS. He sees every one of us through perfect eyes that understand our hearts, our motives, our past, our present and our future. Not only does He see things as they are, but He also knows what is best and needed. That is a truth that I hope we can instill in kids. I think we probably all need that reminder.

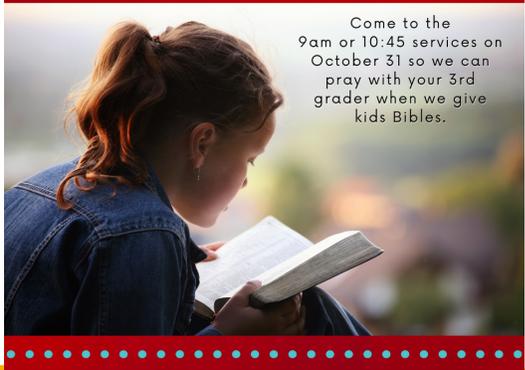

We're giving Bibles to 3rd Graders- Sunday, October 31, 2021, 9 and 10:45am. Kids can come to either service to get their Bibles. Also, if you or your child (older than 3rd grade) need a Bible, feel free to let me know. We want to get God's words in everyone's hands so we have plenty of Bibles stacked up in my office, ready to hand out.

See you soon!

-Heather

DOYLES'S UPDATE

MIDDLE SCHOOL & HIGH SCHOOL

We are officially in full swing for midweek and Sunday morning. While the high school group may miss having the entire church to themselves on Wednesday's, it was so fun having everything going again. Our series for the month in Middle school follows the high school's from September – "You Are Known". I'm so excited to get into the story of creation this week as we see the depth of knowledge God has of us, His creation. The high school moves into a new series "You are Loved". This is always one of my favorite topics to talk about with anyone as we explore the fullness of God's perfect love for us.

Along with midweek and Sunday school, our monthly events are also starting back up. This month, our middle school and high school students are going to the Heartland Corn Maze. On Sunday, October 24th we will meet at the maze at 6:45 p.m. Students, if you are free to come join us for a night in the maze, let me know by Wednesday the 20th.

Rewind one week to Sunday, October 17th. I will be hosting a parent meeting at 7:00 p.m. here at church for the middle school and high school parents. I will be going over the fall calendar, talk through the series for the next few months and seek out some insight and thoughts from you all as parents. My prayer is that we can continue to find ways to partner together throughout the year as you journey through your students middle school and high school years. If you have any questions, bring them with you to the meeting or feel free to reach out anytime.

That's it for this week.
