You Can Say That Again!

Easter comes early this year. I couldn't be more happy. I love the hope and excitement of Easter celebration, but I also feel like it makes winter over, and I'm ready for winter to be over.

We're in a series we titled, "You Can Say That Again." It's a series on the ten stories all four gospel writers tell. It's curious to me that even after Matthew, Mark and Luke had shared these stories, John still felt it was essential he share them again. Why?

Now of course, the one story these writers were all falling over themselves to tell was about the resurrection of Jesus. It is the high point of His story.

Ask any average person on the street what they think of when they hear the name Jesus, and most will say Christmas. That story didn't even make the top ten. Why these stories?

There is no other story like Jesus'. It is a one-of-a-kind, priceless jewel. Now, yes I know He dies in it. Most people's story slowly fades away after death. How much can you tell us about your great-great-grandmother? Probably very little if anything at all. But here we are still talking about Jesus? Granted, His resurrection from death certainly helps to keep the story vibrant. But for people who reject the resurrection, how can His story still be told over and over again. How can you explain that?

One of my friend's son was watching the Easter story with friends. As Jesus died on the cross and the room was hush quiet, he spoke up with a word of hope saying, "Don't worry...He's dead now...but He'll be back!" The end isn't the end, but just a new beginning. Our story does end because Jesus' story didn't end. Embracing this truth is the beginning of great hope.

For ages, we have wondered, questioned, some denied "Is there life after death?" What is the truth? According to scripture, the resurrection of Jesus was more than a singular event in time. It was a cosmic declaration FOR ALL TIME that life after death is a real thing. God made sure each gospel writer told this story. God doesn't repeat Himself for His benefit, so it must be for ours. We need the resurrection.

Thank you!

Thank you!

Thank you!

Thank You

Thank you does not seem sufficient for each and everyone of you and your generosity. I would like to say thank you to all of the people who gave up time in their week to help dip pretzels and make them look amazing. I would also like to thank all of our generous people who came and bought pretzels. Now that our annual pretzel fundraiser has come and gone, I am excited, and at the same time, humbled to say we dipped 5,680 pretzels this year! That is the equivalent to 77 tubs of pretzels. In other terms, if we lined up each pretzel in a line, that would be 3/5th of a mile! That is a lot of pretzels.

In other news, we have had three Sunday School classes in kids ministry earn their donut or pizza party! They have worked extremely hard and have learned scripture, invited people to church, and brought their Bibles to church. A fun story from one of those classes is after their class had their party, their teacher informed them that I would be taking all their ping pong balls out, and they get to do it again. A little girl said, "we get to work on Bible verses again? That is the best news ever! It is super fun." They are excited to learn the Bible, and it's amazing to hear and see. Thank you, teachers, for helping the classes learn the Bible and continually encouraging them. And thank you, parents, for helping at home! It is so fun to watch every week.

The poster features a chalkboard background with a sun, clouds, and a butterfly. It reads: "LINCOLN CHRISTIAN CHURCH PRESCHOOL REGISTRATION IS OPEN NOW". Below this, it says "To get a paper APPLICATION, go to the Lincoln Christian Church Office." and "To LEARN MORE, visit lincolncchristianchurch.org/preschool". It also lists "HALF DAY" and "3 yr class $125 A MONTH" and "4 yr class $150 A MONTH". The address "204 N. McLean St. Lincoln, IL" is listed along with the church logo.

We are currently enrolling students in our Preschool for the fall of 2024. If you have a three or four year old, we would love to have them at Lincoln Christian Church Preschool!

The poster features a forest background with a butterfly. It reads: "Lincoln Christian Church cordially invites you to their Enchanted Forest Daddy Daughter Dance Friday, March 15 6:00 - 8:00 pm Tickets: $5".

Another upcoming event is the Daddy (or another male figure) Daughter Dance on Friday, March 15! Tickets are for sale for $5 per person, but we are looking for our amazing cooks and dessert makers right now. If you are willing to donate a dessert or a finger food to the dance, you can email me for more details. Thank you for helping make this an amazing event each year!

"I just love this group. Some days I don't get a chance to talk to anyone. This group really helps with my loneliness." A little over a year ago this Local Impact Ministry to widows began and was based on James 1:27. All widows are encouraged to join! A different program is planned for each month. The following are just a small sample of our activities: we have had many special speakers, a Valentine tea, a Christmas tea, visited the Lincoln Museum in Lincoln, painted on fabric with melted crayons, and made decorations for the ladies' restrooms by the Fellowship Center and the Sanctuary! GLOBAL IMPACT supports COPE (Children of Pokot Educational fund), alongside LCC, for many years now. Their website describes the history of this organization:

In 1995, Paul and Mary Boatman went to Kenya. They were invited to go to a remote area in North-Western Kenya where the Pokot tribe live. Getting to the area is difficult because there are no good roads to get there. The people lived in mud huts with thatched roofs with no running water, electricity, latrines, services nor schools. The Boatmans found the whole area in great need and came back to the U.S. to raise funds to build a Christian school.

In 1997, Paul and Mary returned to Kenya with 3 women from the Lincoln area. Barb was a successful business woman, Nicki was a student at Lincoln Christian College, and Jane was a school teacher. The purpose for the trip to Pokot was to dedicate the school that was being built with funds from the U.S. The results of that trip led to the establishment of the Children of Pokot Educational Fund, Inc. It also resulted in Barb O'Donohue returning to Pokot multiple times until she closed her business in 2002 and began devoting her time to the ministry.

COPE is still ministering to the Pokot people today and "has grown and developed to become the center of the community teaching Christian beliefs and ethics" (childrenofpokot.org). It has done this through the Tapadany Christian Academy, and the economic development and outreach program.

Tapadany Christian Academy, which began as a humble preschool with just two walls and a dirt floor, has now transformed into a thriving institution with a library, a kitchen, and boarding facilities. Two meals a day are provided for the students and dedicated staff. Additionally, COPE House—a rescue home for children—has become a safe haven for over seventy children ranging in age from three to adulthood. These children receive nourishment, education, and care until their family members can support them. COPE also runs a food giveaway program that feeds hundreds of families a week. Food for this giveaway is sourced locally when possible, from a nearby supplier, and through their farm efforts. COPE has also recently hosted a Farming God's Way seminar that saw fifty individuals in attendance. They have found great success applying those principals to their own crops. So much so that there is hope their farm will provide all of the vegetable needs for their various meal and giveaway programs.

Michaela and Devane Amalla are the current Executive Directors and acting missionaries for COPE. "They are passionate about serving others and spreading the good news of The Gospel to the marginalized people groups of the world. They are hoping to continue to grow their relationship with the Pokot people and show the love of Christ while meeting the physical and educational needs of the community" (childrenofpokot.org).

We are extremely grateful LCC has the ability to come alongside and support the great works God is doing through COPE to educate, support, and share the gospel with the Pokot people. If you would like more information, please find COPE's website referenced above, or reach out to us via our email: lccglobalimpact@gmail.com

With sorrow mixed with the joy of hope, we inform you of the passing of one of our longtime missionaries, Jim Mollette. Jim had been in poor physical health for the last several years, and a recent fall took the final toll. We are grateful for the life Jim led of faithful service to Christ and the opportunity we had to partner with him in the spread of the Gospel in Hong Kong, China, and the Philippines. Please pray for his children and grandchildren as they mourn their loss. Obituary at: mmsfuneralhomes.com/obituaries/james-mollette
