Radical ... Stop Playing It Safe

In 2003, while hiking alone in a remote Utah canyon, Aron Ralston's arm became pinned by an 800-pound boulder that dislodged. Unfortunately, he had failed to let anyone know his plans. Ralston spent five days trapped. His arm slowly began to decompose due to the lack of circulation. Dehydrated and delirious, Ralston did something radical. He amputated his own arm with a pocket knife, tied a tourniquet on the stump, rappelled down a 65-foot cliff, and began hiking out of the canyon. He came upon a family that was camping. They called 911 and he was evacuated by helicopter. Today Ralston is a motivational speaker who continues to enjoy hiking—but now he lets people know where he will be! Did he do the right thing? I guess! Say what you want, this was a radical move.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said if your hand makes you sin, cut it off. Wait what? Pardon me, but that definitely falls under the heading of "radical."

Jesus is well known for making radical statements:

- Take up your cross and follow me
- If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out
- Go sell everything and give it to the poor
- Don't worry about anything
- To be great, you must become a servant
- Love your enemies

Yikes! Pretty radical! These are radical actions. This is a radical commitment. Jesus called for radical love. Being a Christian, a follower of Jesus, is living a radical lifestyle. Am I ready for this?

Why are we playing it safe? Are we not children of the King? Do we believe our faith is right or not? Where are all the brave ones like those of the past who stood up . . . who spoke up? We are told countless times in scripture to be brave, courageous, and fearless. God has a role for each of us to play and it's time to accept my role in this world.

We do not have the luxury of following Jesus only when it's convenient—we are called to follow him radically. Our January series, Radical, will explore what it looks like to stop playing it safe and become all that Jesus hoped we'd become.

Upcoming Series

Newcomers Reception

On Sunday, January 26, following each morning service, we will be holding a newcomers reception in the Fireside Room. If you are newer to Lincoln Christian Church, we would like to take about ten minutes of your time to introduce ourselves to you and give you some information about next steps. This will really help us put a name with a face. Please pick up your kids from the children's ministry before you come to the reception and bring them along. We have a small gift for you as a way of saying "thanks" for attending. No signups are necessary.

Join the Team!

Ministry Teams serve our church family and our community. There is a place for everyone to serve: greeters, kitchen workers, handyman team, and many more. For more information visit: lincolnchristianchurch.org/next.

Happy New Year 2025

I hope everyone had a great Christmas and I wish you all a Happy New Year! It is crazy that it is already 2025! A new year brings so much excitement and so many things to look forward. A new year reminds me of when I was younger and my Mom would get us new coloring books. A brand new coloring book all fresh and clean, ready to be filled with exciting new colors. We all make plans for fun things to do and we want to try to do things better than last year. What new things are you looking forward to doing this year? I am excited to fill my new year with kindness, love, and new memories. I am also looking forward to a few new events this year and I am excited to bring back a few of the old ones.

Chuck's
renew

There are 300 different species of me. The smallest version is no bigger than an inch and I could weigh no more than a raisin. The largest version of me could be taller than 30 feet and weigh more than 600 pounds. Most of us are venomous and we have 3 hearts. What am I?

Answer from last month was orangutan.

We'll send out reminders when the events get closer, but go ahead and add these to your 2025 calendar so you can plan ahead!

January 8—Kids club starts back up. This semester we will be talking about some "sidekicks of the Bible"

February 22—We're having a special Family Event! Keep an eye out for more details! Here's a hint: there could be slime involved.

March 21—Our fourth annual Daddy/Daughter dance will be from 6-8 pm. More details to come.

Preschool Pretzels

The preschool is about to hold their annual pretzel fundraiser. Donated supplies would be extremely helpful. If you are willing to help, I would love to chat about what materials are needed.

GLOBAL IMPACT

Dr. Kal McAlexander serves as the Executive Director of the Chaplaincy Endorsement Commission (CEC). This commission endorses and provides pastoral care to Christian Church/Church of Christ chaplains in the U.S. military, hospitals, prisons, and corporations.

Kal and his wife Cindy spend a lot of time traveling to visit and encourage chaplains throughout the country and to recruit new chaplains. Kal also has opportunities to engage and interact with military leaders as a member of the Executive Committee of Chaplain Alliance for Religious Freedom. In 2024, he spoke at the National Roundtable for Religious Freedom in Washington D.C. Kal also reports that chaplains endorsed by the CEC have been involved in many notable projects including the film documentary "Fighting Spirit: A Combat Chaplain's Journey" and a revision of an Air Force curriculum.

Reports from chaplains demonstrate that God is moving mightily through these men and women of God. Kal and Cindy frequently share about baptisms, Bible studies, and worship services held on military bases around the world.

- Pray for Kal and Cindy McAlexander for safety in travels and wisdom as they meet with and encourage chaplains throughout the country and with military and political leaders.
- Pray for those who are considering becoming chaplains.
- Pray for those you know who are in the military that they will be encouraged and ministered to by a chaplain.
