Luke 17:1-10

Start with big nature, You spoke everything into existence. Rocks and trees[v1,v6]

Jesus, you tell us the truth because of your love for us[1Jn4:10]. You say that if any of us would cause each other to sin it is better to die[v2]. So lord let that be true for us. If any of us are on the verge of committing a heinous sin would you take them home now.

Lord, help us to correct each other out of love and the good of one another[Col3:16]. Keep us alert[v3] that we would be aware of our current situation awaiting your glorious return[Titus2:13]. Help us not lead others into temptation[v1]. Remind us that because of your righteousness we can now live lives that are above reproach[1Tim3:2] modelling the holiness[1Tim3:10] that you have given to your believers. Jesus is the good stumbling block[Rom9:33]

For now, we will sin against one another, but let us be a repentant people[v4] that love correction[Prov 12:1]. Let us be a forgiving people[v4]; now let us be like our suffering king[Is 52-53] and always forgive[v4] those who have sinned against us. Lord you really do value correction[v3] for our good, how much more do you value forgiveness, which has no limits. Where sin was once deeply rooted, you uprooted us[v6] and placed into your kingdom[Col1:13]. It's by your authority that we have been saved.

God, you are a kind and gracious master[v9]. We praise you Lord because your love and care for us is not rooted in our performance[Eph2:9, v9] but in your character. When your servants fail, you forgive us, and when we, by God's grace, do as you have commanded, keep us humble[v10] for all glory rightly belongs to you[Eph 3:21].

Your word is clear[Rom1:19]. That Christians aren't distinguished because of how great or small our faith[v6] is, but it is all about the object of our faith[Jn 14:6], even if that faith is as small as a mustard seed[v6]. How much better is it for a skater to have small faith on thick ice, rather than a skater with great faith on thin ice. So in faith Lord we lift up our sister church First Baptist Church Pocatello and Pastor Mike. We pray that today his words would fall to the ground and your words would mightily speak through him into the hearts and minds of the church in order to build them up in order to do the work of ministry[Eph4:12] that you would be glorified.

It's true we live in a time when we have fully been redeemed but not yet fully restored[v1] with you in Heaven. Help us not be a downward looking people. For we have your common grace Lord, all of our food comes from you, we have water from the rock, we get to see your light in the sunrise every day, and we get to gather around the fire at night[Ex ch. 13,16,17] You dwell[Tabernacle Jn 1:14] with us and you have fully atoned for our sins[1Jn4:10, Heb10:12]

Holy Spirit, our time on this earth yes it may be a windy and slippery road[Ps23], but by your power it is safe and short. Death can be frightening but Praise our victorious God for our high priest is standing in its way[Heb9:15], opening a passage for your people[1Pt3:18-20], and beyond is a better country[Heb11:16]. We only live to be called your faithful stewards[v7], that we would be living examples of your perfect servanthood[Mk10:45]. I pray for all the believers in this room, that we would have rightly placed faith causing us to be a people marked by gratitude[2Thess1:3] and obedience[Acts5:29] living a life that would hear the words of our father, "well done, good and faithful servant." [Mt25:23]
