And He told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.’” And the Lord said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to His elect, who cry to Him day and night? Will He delay long over them? I tell you, He will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?”

— LUKE 18:1-8 (ESV)

...so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

— HEBREWS 6:12 (ESV)

THE PRAYER

Lord, for the last few months, we have been coming to You, with one voice, from 179 nations around the world. We thank You for Your mitigation of COVID-19. Without Your divine aid, things could have been far worse. Yet, many of us find ourselves in nations still in the clutches of this pandemic. Our economies have not recovered. Our lands are in deep need of spiritual and social healing. Despite these realities, we refuse to lose heart. You promise to give justice to Your people as we cry out to You day and night.

Lord, with one voice, we ask You to eradicate COVID-19 and bring healing to our nations.

Heavenly Father, You are not an unjust Judge. Even when the answers to our prayers are seemingly delayed, there is a higher purpose at work. As we continue to cry out before Your throne, fill us with fresh power, hope, and love. May we have the faith to fully cooperate with You when Your Spirit is freshly poured out on the earth.

Heavenly Father, send a fresh move of Your Spirit that will lead to the salvation of millions of people around the world.

Lord, there are times when faith alone does not help us to see our prayers answered. It takes faith and patience to receive Your promised breakthrough. Therefore, we refuse to quit. Continue to build in us a faith that does not wither in the heat of crisis or break under the weight of impossibility.

Lord, we pray You would find faith in our hearts as You awaken Your church and save the lost through a fresh outpouring of Your Spirit.
