Open Hands, Faithful Hearts

Week 2

LASLOMASCC.COM
29 Willow Rd. Royal Oaks, CA 95076

This week's message reminded us that faithfulness shapes overcomers long before public victory. Fear loses its grip when obedience becomes consistent, and God entrusts greater influence to hearts that remain faithful.

Discussion Questions

1. God Measures Faithfulness, Not Visibility

- Why do you think God values faithfulness in hidden places?
- Have you ever felt overlooked while trying to do what's right?
- What does living for God's approval instead of people's applause look like for you this week?

2. Fear Loses Its Grip Through Consistent Obedience

- How does remembering past obedience build courage today?
- What is one fear you are currently facing?
- How could consistent obedience weaken that fear?

3. Faithful Hearts Are Trusted With Greater Influence

- Why do you think faithfulness often comes before influence?
- Revelation 3:8 reminds us that obedience leads to doors God opens.
- Where might God be preparing you for something bigger through your current season?

Living It Out

Remember, God develops strength in private before He displays victory in public. This week ask yourself:

- What specific area did the Holy Spirit reveal where fear has slowed your obedience?
- Where is God asking you to be more consistent and faithful this week?
- What is one practical step you will take this week to build faithfulness instead of waiting for courage?
