Hymnal 150

Hymnal 147

BCP 339

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Music Notes

Today is the first Sunday in Lent, and we begin the service with the Great Litany, a sure sign that Lent is upon us. The penitential nature of this wonderful set of sung petitions and responses sets the tone for the day as well as the season, as we repent and turn back towards God and the cross and eventually arrive at Easter. Today's first two hymns remind us of the forty days Christ spent in the wilderness fasting and being tempted by Satan, the very basis of the forty days of Lent. The closing hymn reminds us of our ongoing battle against Satan and the forces of evil. The offertory anthem reflects themes from the readings from Romans and Matthew, and the first communion anthem quotes Psalm 51, the very penitential psalm often used throughout Lent.

Permission to stream the music in this service obtained from One License lic. #A-732869 and CCLI lic. #20201141.

What is the Great Litany?

The Great Litany is said to be the first prayer composed in the English language (rather than an English translation from another language) for use in public worship. It is an intercessory prayer said or sung by a leader with fixed responses by the congregation. It was the first rite prepared by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and published in 1544 (so predating the first BCP). He was influenced by earlier litanies from Latin and German sources. The Litany's use in church processions was ordered by Henry VIII, and it was printed as an appendix to the Eucharist in the 1549 BCP. Historically, the Litany has been used in ordination rites as well as during Morning and Evening Prayer, before the Eucharist, and even separately. These days, though, it is most often used during Lent because of its penitential nature and often includes an extended procession because of its length.

First Lesson – Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die." Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?'" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.'" But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Psalm – 32 simplified Anglican chant sung by all

1 Happy are they whose transgressions are for/given, *
and whose sin is put a/way!

2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no / guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no / guile!

3 While I held my tongue my bones withered a/way, *
because of my groaning all day / long.

4 For your hand was heavy upon me day and / night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of / summer.

5 Then I acknowledged my / sin to you, *
and did not conceal my / guilt.

6 I said "I will confess my transgressions to the / LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my / sin.

7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of / trouble; *
when the great waters overflow they shall not / reach them.

8 You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from / trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of de/liverance.

9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should / go; *
I will guide you with my / eye.

10 Do not be like horse or mule which have no under/standing; * who must be fitted with bit and bridle, or else they will not stay / near you."

11 Great are the tribulations of the / wicked; *
but mercy embraces those who trust in the / LORD.

12 Be glad you righteous and rejoice in the / LORD; *
shout for joy all who are true of / heart.

Second Lesson – Romans 5:12-19

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned – sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come. But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ. Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Holy Gospel – Matthew 4:1-11

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Communion of the People

At Holy Communion, all baptized Christians are welcome to receive. The bread is received in the open palm. Gluten free wafers are available upon request; ask the priest when at the altar rail. The wine may be taken from the cup by drinking (placing your hand on the base to guide it) or by "intinction" (dipping the bread). If you wish to participate but do not want to receive the bread or wine, simply cross your arms over your chest to receive a blessing. Please let an usher know if you need assistance to the altar rail or if a priest may bring the elements to your pew.

We come O Lord this day

Michael Bedford

We come, O Lord, this day, we lift our hearts to pray; we bring our songs of grateful praise, our psalms of joy to you we raise, we worship you in every way. We come, O Lord, this day, we bow our heads to pray; enable us to do your will, make clear our goals and guide us still, that we may serve you day by day. We come, O Lord, this day, we bow our heads to pray; forgive us when we fail to do an act of love that pleases you, forgive us when we turn away. We come, O Lord, this day, we lift our hearts to pray; we give our thanks to you above, we share with all your tender love, we worship you in every way.
