

Proverbially Speaking

By Mike Riley

Knowledge points the way; wisdom gets us there (Proverbs 1:1-7; Proverbs 4:1-13).

We reap what we sow, only in greater proportions (Gal. 6:7; cf. 2 Samuel 12:1-23).

If you live in the fast lane, you may find it hard to slow down to make a right turn (Luke 15:11-16).

The Lord's Supper is a memorial to God's forgetting (Matthew 26:28; Hebrews 8:12; Hebrews 9).

Let us preach as never sure to preach again as a dying man to dying men (2 Corinthians 4:1-14).

A candle loses nothing by lighting another candle and then lighting others; likewise, by loving and helping others, we lose nothing and everyone is made to gain as our whole surroundings become aglow (Matthew 5:14-16).

We may not be what we think we are, but we are what we think (Proverbs 23:6-7).

Being a real Christian enhances your capacity to love your husband or wife even more (Ephesians 5:23-33; cf. 1 Peter 3:1-7).
